The new residents on Merrill street? They are Mr. and Mrs. David Cutter Allison and Denis John, 19 months, who moved here in September from Mt. Clemens. Also at the same address is Simon O'Shea, public relations director of the Pontiac area United Fund. Mr. Allison is industrial editor in public relations for Federal Mogul-Bower Bearings, Inc. and editor of the organization's house organ. His mother is Mrs. Denis J. Allison of West Lincoln avenue. He attended Champion school in Wisconsin, the American school in Mexico City and University of Detroit. In Mt. Clemens, he was employed by a feature writer. Before her marriage his wife did newspaper work in Albany, New York City and Paris. O'Shea attended Wayne and Michigan State universities and his hobbies include sailing, gardening, riding and chess.

She Plays Hostess and Maid In St. Dunstan Guild's Gigi

"First come, first seated in the new foam-rubber chairs," will be the motto at St. Dunstan's Guild productions of Gigi, Oct. 12, 13, 19 and 20. "If you are lucky enough to secure one of the beautiful cushioned chairs, you will truly feel you are floating on a pink cloud during the entire performance," remarks Mrs. Dwight C. Ensign.

Mrs. John E. Warner is directing Gigi, which is the opening play of the season, and Mrs. Lewis G. Kanan is in charge of production. Properties for two settings which are appropriate for the turn of the century are being secured by Mrs. Jervis B. McMechan. Mrs. Robert L. Jones is locating the suits, dresses and negligees worn in the year 1900. Entirely new flats will be used in the two sets designed by Mrs. Nathaniel C. Doughty and Ray H. Bass.

OTHERS of the production staff are James Fox, stage manager; Edward N. Schneider and Lewis G. Kanan, Jr., lighters; Mrs. Jack E. Berno, make-up; Mrs. Alan W. Wenzel, lines; Mrs. Robert B. Foster and Mrs. Dwight C. Ensign, publicity; Lewis C. Keenan, photographer; Mrs. Victor Armstrong and Mrs. Sidney Oldberg, posters; Mr. and Mrs. Harry D. Wise, Jr., program; and Mrs. Muir W. Lind, tickets.

Residents Brave Elements To Watch Football Game

Many residents from the village braved the elements Saturday afternoon at the Michigan-Michigan State game. Dr. and Mrs. Hugh O. Thompson of Broadway blvd. and son Tom traveled to Ann Arbor and there met daughter Karen, a Michigan State student, down from Lansing for the game. The Gardiner C. Vosses of Glen-garry road traveled by bus with the Pine Lake country club group. They rooted for Michigan as daughter Trudy is in her freshman year at the university. She is living at Stockwell Hall.

Mr. and Mrs. John Annas of Covington drive spent Saturday on the Notre Dame campus at South Bend where they attended the Notre Dame-Indiana game. Accompanying their parents were Sally and Glady Annas.

Mr. and Mrs. John Tuckfield of South Williamabury and daughter Susan traveled to Cincinnati, Ohio last weekend to spend a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Howard Turner of that city.

Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Moore of North Glen-garry have had as houseguests recently Mr. and Mrs. Frank H. Balesbury and their son, John, of Sao Paulo, Brazil. The Balesburys have made their home in Brazil for the past 11 years.

James Holden Van Hook, son of Mr. and Mrs. James K. Van Hook of Sunnydale has enrolled as a freshman on the Hillsdale college campus. He was a June graduate of Leelanau at Glenn Arbor, Mich.

Jim took a weekend off from his books to make a quick return to his home before heading for the north with friends to do some partridge hunting. Sue Van Hook entertained a group of young friends for dinner prior to the Birmingham high football game Friday night.

Seen attending the opening tea at Village Players were Mr. and Mrs. Elliot W. Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Gilles, Mr. and Mrs. C. Gayle Welch, Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Averill, Mr. and Mrs. Karl-ton W. Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Clement A. Penrose, Mr. and Mrs. Charles N. Blunt and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Thomsen.

Sharon Lynne Ostrow of Glen-garry road celebrated her eighth birthday by giving a party for seven of her little friends. Guests were seated at a yellow and green decorated table, dominated by a birthday cake. Adrien Petrakis attended as did Barbie Fisher, Susan Peckelner, Martha McClew, Bette Jo Bettel and Kandy and Marilyn Rogers. Sharon is the daughter of the Frank E. Ostrows recently.

NATURE'S OWN COLOR-BLENDS IN MEN'S TWEEDS!

Nature's color-blends always delight the eye. For Fall '56, Stroock has taken nature's most striking colors and reproduced them faithfully in Folkweave. Achieved thru inter-blending as many as eleven colors of super-wools, these CANYON COLORS combine lighter, brighter, sun-swept tones with softer, muted greys, olives and heathers. There has never been anything like them in tweed-appeal!
