

MRS. MARTIN KINGSHILL

Honeymooners Tour New England States

A floor length gown of French chantilly lace over nylon tulle and satin was worn by Patricia Nancy Sperling for her marriage to Martin Kingshill Saturday. The Rev. W. Glen Harris officiated at the 4 o'clock double-ring rites in the First Methodist church.

The lace bodice was accented with a boat neckline and long sleeves that came to points over the hands. The skirt consisted of three layers of tulle over satin with a short overskirt of lace which gave an apron effect. Her fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a seed pearl tiara. She carried her mother's prayerbook topped with amazon lilies and stephanotis. She carried a white lace handkerchief which her mother and grandmother carried.

Patricia's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Sterling of Kirkshire road, Birmingham. Martin's parents are the Martin A. Kingshills of Detroit.

FRANCES Harvey was maid of honor in an iridescent tangerine peau de soie gown of ballerina length. A stand-out short veil fell from a velvet crown. She carried lime green full mums and hibiscus roses.

Her only bridesmaid was Ellen Kingshill, sister of the groom, in a frock identical to the honor attendant's.

Edward Neubacher was best man. Seating the guests were Myron Douglas Dunde and Robert and Richard Sperling brothers of the bride.

THE BRIDE's mother wore a peacock blue street length dress of peau de soie and the groom's mother wore coffee brown taffeta. Both mothers were cymbidium orchids.

After a reception at the home of the bride's parents the couple left for a wedding trip through the New England States.

Scenic Beauty Spots of Northern Michigan Visited by Local Trio

Home again after a long motor trip through Michigan and the Upper Peninsula are Mrs. Joseph Beckley of Brookdale and her companions, Miss Nina Westerlin and Mrs. Nelson Harston of Birmingham.

Their trip included a boat trip at Tahquamenon Falls, and a visit to Hartwick Pines where the deer are thick and unafraid. They found the beauty of the Copper country impressive. Houghton Lake was another stop before returning home.

Mrs. J. Lyman Bryan, Jr. of Fox Run entertained at a coffee last Thursday evening, honoring Mrs. W. L. Dallas, fourth grade teacher at Pembroke school. It was an evening of getting acquainted. Assisting Mrs. Bryan with dessert were Mrs. Jack McCullough and Mrs. Walter Ekberg.

The Wendell Butlers of Hurley drive had his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Butler from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., as their houseguests the weekend of Sept. 30.

Enjoying a few days in Chicago recently were Mrs. Paul Taylor of Lanagan drive and Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Switz of Butternut Hill, relative of Mrs. Taylor.

Birmingham Post Office delivery service was extended along Brooks Lane, Uptown, Wendover and Paddington roads last week. This extension will accommodate 45 additional families.

AREA NEWCOMERS

Newcomers to Pine Hill are Mr. and Mrs. Kansas Leech of Juniper Court from Memphis, Tenn. They have a five month old son, Bruce. Mr. Leech is a salesman with General Hardward Lumber Co., Detroit. They are golf enthusiasts.

Another new family on Juniper Ct. are the Carroll Porters, from Richmond, Va. Mr. Porter is an assistant chief engineer with the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad. Among their hobbies are fishing and flying.

Mrs. Porter has just returned home after spending a week with their married daughter, Mrs. Irving Packett, in Warsaw, Va. While there she joined in the celebration

Reader Composes Election Poem

To the Editor:
Four years ago I composed a poem to get out the vote for Dwight D. Eisenhower, which you so kindly published in The Eccentric. As a result, I had a nice personal letter from him, of which I can say I am quite proud. I have just finished another poem which I hope you will find good enough to merit a place in an early issue of The Eccentric. I lived in Birmingham over 6 years and still take The Birmingham Eccentric, which I would not do without. Poem is as follows:
If you're proud of the way the country's run,
And proud of the budget, too;
If your business is good, your pay check fat,

Then Eisenhower's for you!
If you're content with the Peace we've had
And want to keep out of war;
There's only one way to do this, friend,
Just vote for Eisenhower!
If you're proud of the richness of our land,
That has come "without a war",
You have no doubt who's the better man,
So vote for Eisenhower!
He gave you an income beyond your dreams
And gave you a restful night,
For no blood is shed in another land,
And things have been done right!
He needs more time to complete his task,
He's honest, and tactful and true—
He'll do what's right with God in Sight;
So—it's Eisenhower for you.
