

Voters' Guides Made Available By Women Voters

Voters' Guides, information sheets on candidates whose names will appear on the ballot Nov. 6, are now available to groups and organizations from the Birmingham League of Women Voters, and 3 by members of the League. Prepared by the League, these sheets provide both background information on individual candidates and answers these candidates have given to questions pertinent to offices for which they are running. Requests for copies of the Voters' Guides for group distribution may be made to Mrs. Henry Jackson, of 630 Pilgrim.

Township Players Ready Production Of Moss Hart Play

Scene of frantic activity these fall evenings is a barn on W. Maple road, between Middlebelt and Orchard Lake roads. There Township Players, little theatre group of Birmingham and other suburban community residents, is rehearsing "Light Up the Sky," by Moss Hart.

The story of the pre-opening trials and tribulations of a theatrical company is told in this third production in seven months, which the players will present Nov. 2 and 3 at West Bloomfield high school auditorium.

Reservations for tickets can be obtained through Mrs. Burke Bartlett, of 425 N. Evansdale, Bloomfield township, or Mrs. George Bender, of 1087 Graefield road.

There are jobs for everyone in the year-old group," Mrs. Bartlett said, "and those interested in little theatre activities are invited to call Mrs. Bender or myself for information."

Torch Drive Aides

Robert J. Giffert, 1347 Villa, Detroit representative of Life Magazine, has been named advertising and promotion chairman of the Torch Drive in Birmingham-Bloomfield-Franklin. Mrs. Philip Dewiler, 18200 Kirkshire, is co-chairman of publicity.

Chicago Transit Authority claims it holds the world record for the largest single charter bus operation. In September, 1954, it used 800 buses to carry approximately 38,400 passengers to the Marian Year Observation at Soldier Field.
