Meadow Lake's Dude Ranch Parties Raises Funds for Area Improvements

Western all the way were the two "Dude ranch" parties sponsored by Meadowlake Farms association last week. Decked out in jeans, plaid shirts and western hats, the children climbed onto the ivory pony-driven buckboard and were taken to the island for the afternoon's activities. Pictures of "Wanted" were tacked on the trees and as soon "hunt" started. The young buck-as all children had arrived a "posse" was kept busy with pony rides throughout the afternoon, topped off with a real western chuck-wagon dinner, the last bit of western atmosphere necessary to make the day one to be long remembered.

Western attired men and women consumed great quantities of barbecued ribs at the evening event with dancing on the island to the music of a dude ranch band as the evening's entertainment.

Proceeds from the combined events considered "the most successful yet" will be used to beautify the Meadowlake area.

Mrs. James Elliott Jr., 6904 Valley Spring drive entertained her neighborhood bridge club at luncheon at her home Wednesday. Mrs. Joseph LaPlant was hostess to her bridge club, Wednesday at her home on Meadowlake road. Mr. and Mrs. Leo Mowczynski, Meadowlake road are vacationing in Chicago for a few days.

A preview of winter was experienced by Mr. and Mrs. Carter Chamberlain, Chamberlain drive, during their recent vacation at Blaney Park.

While golfing, a downpour of rain turned to hail then to snow. In spite of it all, they enjoyed their ten-day stay in the Upper Peninsula amid the beautiful brilliance of the foliage. Their trip terminated with a house party at the summer home of the Simmers of Birmingham near Tawas.

Lee Ann Chamberlain was anxiously awaiting the return of her parents in anticipation of her fifth birthday celebration Sunday.

Twelve of her little friends turned pirate with hata, daggers, and eye patches to participate in a treasure hunt.

The treasures were nickles taped to stones painted gold. Gold coin candies were hunted later in the afternoon at another treasure hunt completing the afternoon's activities.

Mr. and Mrs. James Gunn, Holiday drive, had Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ferguson of La Trobe, Penn. as home guests for several days. Mrs. Ferguson is Mrs. Gunn's sister.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thom as Serba was the scene of an annual picnic for 20 friends of Mrs. Frank Warner, Mrs. Serba's mother.

Cub Pack LC-2 To Meet Tuesday

LATHRUP—Den mothers and committee members of cub pack LC-2 met at the home of the Bill McCrackens on Meadowlark last week to review the program for October and to make final plans for a pack meeting at Lathrup school Tuesday at 7:00 p.m. Program chairman Vince Strohm announced that "Milky" the Twin Pines clown will be on the program. Cubs of pack LC-2 have invited cubs of pack LC-1, to attend the meeting.

The first regular meeting of the Meadowlake branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden club was held at the home of Mrs. A. J. Daahy, 6926 Valley Spring drive, Oct. 8. Luncheon was served at 12 o'clock. Mrs. Charles Bickling of Spring Brook Gardens talked on bulbs.

Den mothers are Mrs. Henry Ohrt, Mrs. James Dunn, Mrs. Ed Ohrt, Mrs. Gerald Hart, Mrs. John P. Dubeque, and Don Harshman.

Freedom of Press Topic of Southfield Kiwanis Meeting

SOUTHFIELD—George William Averill, managing editor of The Birmingham Eccentric was guest speaker at the Southfield Kiwanis meeting last week, in recognition of national newspaper week.

Averill spoke on the importance of the press in a free society. Urban Hart, second vice president, arranged the meeting.

Julius Schenky, Mrs. James Herin and Mrs. John C. Huntley, Jr. Pack meetings will be held the third Tuesday of each month.
