

Special Guests Attend Club's Third Birthday Observance

The third birthday of the Walnut Lake Woman's National Farm and Gardens association was celebrated at the home of Mrs. Walter Brieden of East Dartmoor road.

A tiered cake decorated with candles marked the meeting as a special occasion, and members greeted guests Mrs. William McCallum, state extension chairman; Mrs. F. G. Davis, president of the Birmingham branch and Mrs. Warren C. Puhaw, president of the Interlakes branch.

Mrs. R. C. Barker, first president of the Walnut Lake branch and Mrs. E. S. Maund, this year's president, were also honored. The program was a book review by Mrs. Donald Currie, "Episode of Sparrows."

Next Monday, the first get-together for Bloomfield Farms residents will be held at West Bloomsfield township hall, 4460 Orchard Lake road, at 8:30 p.m.

Those planning to attend have been asked to notify William A. Brunsford on East Dartmoor road or George A. Brunsford, also of East Dartmoor road.

Welcome to the Russell Krohmers, who moved Sept. 1 into the former Funk home on Darramoor road. The family moved here from Cleveland, which Krohmer left six months ago to establish a business in Detroit. He is now operating the AA Furnace and Boiler Co. There are six Krohmer children, two married, Mrs. Joseph Roberts of Baltimore, and Russell, Jr., of Cleveland. Robert, 15, attended Birmingham high school, and Janet, 11, Sharon, 10, and Leo, 8, attend Walnut Lake school. The couple also have two grandchildren.

Mrs. Krohmer loves gardening, and participates in the life of her youngsters, all of whom are all sports swimmers, like to roller skate and enjoy many other activities. She was a deaconess in the Heights Presbyterian church, Cleveland.

Krohmer managed a jaunt to Florida and Cuba before opening his business here, a trip which his wife was forced to miss because of a baby-sitter problem.

The family is favorably impressed with the friendliness and neighborliness shown them, and say that although they live in a Cleveland neighborhood very much it did not have the same charm which they find in their new surroundings.

Welcome also to Mr. and Mrs. Edwin C. Delaney of West Dartmoor road, who moved here from Indianapolis. The family includes James, 10, who attends Walnut Lake school.

Delaney is a certified public accountant, associated with General Motors in the central office. He belongs to the American Institute of Accountants.

In his spare time he golfs and fishes, usually with Mrs. Delaney sharing the fun. The family stored
