Lawrence Nelson to Honor Parents on 50th Anniversary

On Oct. 20 the Lawrence R. Nelsons of Morningview Terrace are entertaining at a home reception to honor Mrs. Nelson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Alven Beckstrom, who will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary that day.

Among the large group at this happy event will be two grandchildren, Mrs. Elinor Swanson and Lawrence Nelson Jr., and one great-grandchild, Richard.

New to the village is the Harlan Mills family, of Morningview Terrace, moved here from Essex-fells, N. J. They have two daughters, Nancy, 15, attending Birmingham high and Barbara, 12, a student at Derby junior high. Mr. Mills is associated with Chrysler Corp.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Richardson Jr. of Clemons road are giving a get-together party in their home Saturday honoring Lavern Stolpe and Paul Sechler, both of Farmington, who will be married in November.

Dr. and Mrs. H. B. Green of Hupp Cross road traveled to Ann Arbor as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Edward McCall of Bloomfield Hills to witness the Michigan-Army game. They also visited son Douglas, a U of M junior.

Mrs. Paul Hyman of Yarmouth is giving a dinner party Saturday to celebrate her husband's birthday. The event will take place in the Hyman home and guests will be Mr. and Mrs. Henry Schlachter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lynch, Mr. and Mrs. Reid Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Van Fleet, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Rennell, Major and Mrs. Arthur DeRoiser and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stewart.

Buffets and bowling go hand and glove with one group of Bloomfield village friends. They meet each Sunday for bowling and take turns at buffets later in the evening. In the group are Mr. and Mrs. Judge Bearden, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Nowak, Mr. and Mrs. Reid Jenkins, Mr. and Mrs. William Cartwright, Mr. and Mrs. John Lynch and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Rostock.

Boy scout troop B-15 spent a weekend at D-Bar-A ranch at Metamora under the leadership of Richard Beaubien, scout master and Leland Beers, Omar Petti, Walter Hansz and Edward McClew.

Scouts on the campout were Royce Beers, Jack Macdonald, Bob Part, Danny Nicholls, Fred Adams, Dick Beaubien, Gordon McMuller, Gary Kasco, David Hansz, Bill Petti, Scott Robeson, Scott Dittick, John Hays and Tee McGovern.

Girl scout troop 313 will be available for baby-sitting from 3:00-5:00 p.m. in the school gym while their parents vote Nov. 7.

WOMEN WHO PRESENT a therapeutic program for mentally and physically ill patients in over 20 hospitals in South Eastern Michigan joined for hints on flower arranging Friday at the Community House. They were members of the South Eastern Horticultural Council . . . comprised of garden clubbers, church women and auxiliary members. Pointers are being given to Mrs. William Burlingame, Mrs. Otto Grob and Mrs. Sheldon Marston from Del Adams, local florist. The workers are all community volunteers with a superior gardening background. Trainer for the group is Mrs. Burlingame, 3891 Oakhills road.

Ask New Signs

A study is being made of a 10-signature petition for yield right-of-way signs for Ridgedale at Worth, Birmingham Police Chief Ralph Moxley said.
