"It's dynamite!", a member of the Birmingham Congregational church committee sponsoring "Measure of a Moment" told us. The dramatic presentation reveals how American Christian missionaries started a revolution in the minds of men around the globe.

Now that revolution is going wrong, and the missionaries' unfinished work has become the seed bed for Communist activities.

activities.

"We cannot—we dare not—stop halfway in revolution!", says one of the characters in the production, which is open to the public tomorrow and Saturday night at the church at 8:20 p.m.

Rev. Dr. W. Glen Harris will preach in Spanish this week-end. But members of First Presbyterian church needn't word was been supported by the presence of the presbyterian church in Mexico. He preached the same sermon on heaven, titled "In My Father's House", attoowlovy camp meetings last summer in New Mexico. Because the rowboys liked it so well, it has been printed in a special bedilet, dedicated "to Ralph Hall and the crew of the stockmen's camp meetings in the South west; who as much as any froup of pepple that I know are dedicated to turning the faces and hearts of people-toward heaven."

MRS. NORMAN KRUPP, organist, will be pre-sented in a recital Sun by at Lutheran Church of the Ascension at 4 pm. Her program will feature the works of such composers as Bach, Dubois, Franck, and later romantic and modern composers. Mrs. Krupp, organist and junior and senior choir di-rector at the Church of the Ascension, will use the classical organ designed especially for the new church by Walter Holtlamp. Teen-agers will con-duct a nursery for younger children during the pro-gram.
