Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rowe Return from Western Trip

A three-week western trip was filled with interesting experiences for Mr. and Mrs. Harold Rowe, Valley Spring drive. Friends from Long Beach, Calif. met them in Las Vegas at the Sahara Hotel and to make the most of their four-day visit, they attended three shows nightly.

Returning to their friends' home in Long Beach, Rowe was honored at a cocktail party on 45 guests. From there the Rowes drove to San Francisco, Lake Tahoe and Reno then on to Portland where they took the ferry across to Victoria, B.C.

Mrs. Rowe purchased many beautiful items here to add to her collection. In Vancouver they collected an evening football game. "Quite different from our home and very interesting," Mrs. Rowe said.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Akers of Pickering road had Mrs. Akers' cousin and husband, Mr. and Mrs. J. Wharton Cover as house guests for a few days. They stopped here en route to their home in Alliance, Neb. after visiting their daughter and son-in-law in Newfoundland. Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Akers called at their home Sunday afternoon to meet the Covers.

Mrs. Gilbert Borgquist entertained mothers of Walnut Lake school sixth grade pupils at a tea at her Meadowlake road home Monday afternoon. Teacher James Allen explained his program for the year.

Mrs. John Davis, Torch Drive district chairman for the Wing Lake area was hostess at a coffee at her Meadowlake road home Tuesday. Guests were solicitors who will be working with her during the drive. Mrs. Donald W. Richards, divisional chairman, was present.

Boy Scouts David Dillow, Steve DeRoulo, Roy Waters and Milan Bartek of the Franklin Village troop have been busy for several weeks collecting papers for the troop's paper drive which took place Saturday.

A thrilling experience for young David Dillow, 12, was his recent deer hunting trip. He and his father, Mr. Dillow, went to Gaylord to hunt with bow and arrow.
