Gold Cadillac' Producers To Give All Cars A Break

To be fair to all car manufacturers in motor-minded Birmingham, the Village Players will play all the other singing commercials of the auto industry over their public address system during the terminations of "The Solid Gold Cadillac," which opens tomorrow evening at their Chestnut street Playhouse.

The comedy also will be presented Saturday evening and the following weekend. Curtain time is 9 p.m.

A special feature of this first public show of the Players' 34th season will be a mock-up of the latest color TV camera, built according to specifications from RCA blueprints.

The leading roles in the Broadway hit by George S. Kaufman and Howard Teichmann will be played by Walter F. Skinner, as Ed McKever, the president of General Products who gave up a lucrative career to take a top government post, and Mrs. Rolfe C. Spinning, as Mrs. Laura Partridge, the not-so-young former actress who aims to help the little stockholders.

Among Players planning dinner parties before the show are Mr. and Mrs. Lawton C. Taber, 18250 Devonshire, who will have as their guests Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Marshall O. McGuinness, of Detroit. The following Saturday evening their guests will be Mr. and Mrs. William La Pla, of Grosse Pointe, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Swift, of Farmington.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all new—call the society editor about them.

Local Students Make News At Schools Across Nation

Leading off the news of local students from schools across the nation this week is the selection Saturday of Jane Wallace as homecoming queen at Mount Union college, Alliance, Ohio.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald J. Wallace of 621 Fairfax, she's a junior majoring in sociology.

Her sorority sisters in Alpha Chi Omega selected her to be their candidate for the queen title, competing against girls sponsored by each fraternity and sorority on campus. Results of the all-college voting were announced on "Homecoming Day," Saturday, when friends and alumni returned to Mount Union for an afternoon football game, the crowning of the queen and a homecoming dance.

Jane is active in the student association and is a member of the college's cheerleading squad.

A SENIOR, junior and freshman, respectively, at DePauw university, Greencastle, Ind., are Suzanne Blair of Glenhurst drive, Jane McDaniel of Fairfax avenue and Dave Griffith of Witherbee, Troy township.

PTA Meeting for Seniors' Parents

The Washington group's itinerary, down payments, and waiting lists were explained by E. A. Hubbard, director of the trip, to parents of seniors at a recent Birmingham high PTA meeting.

Herbert Hunter, PTA president, acted as chairman of the meeting in the school's little theatre and introduced the speakers.

Harold Van Dracht, senior advisor, discussed the many other activities in which the seniors participate. J. Jay Myers gave information on the military reserve, ROTC scholarships, and the DIO.

Donald Grothe, counselor, explained the college board examinations, scholarship qualifying test, and the counseling services.

Ross A. Wagner, principal, gave information on the selection of colleges, admission, and recommendations.

After the meeting the group met socially for coffee in the Maple room.
