BITS OF BIRMINGHAM

BIRMINGHAM'S GROUND OBSERVER POST needs a new director, since Mrs. Donald R. St. John, of 2280 Dorchester, Birmingham, has been forced to resign the post on doctor's orders. Consequently, Mrs. Melvina Eberle, of Milford, area civil defense director, is searching for a volunteer to supervise sky-watching activities at the new E. Maple structure. A "Bits of Birmingham" brought Mrs. St. John's attention to the need for a director in the first place. Now Mrs. Eberle is hoping that another "Bits" reader will phone her or the post about taking over the important civil defense duty.

MERELY ASKING FOR CONTRIBUTIONS to the Torch Drive was not enough for 12-year-old Nancy Turner, of 1721 Winthrop, Birmingham. Nancy, a Barnum school seventh grader, made earrings of enameled copper, then sold them to neighbors. Result: $7.10 for the United Foundation.

BURNING OF LEAVES in the gutters of gravel streets that have been oiled is disastrous to the surface, city engineers point out. This consumes the oil, thus leaving the gravel (and some dirt) loose and subject to squishiness during rainy seasons. It is suggested that leaves should be burned only on areas where oil or concrete are not used.
