

The daily schedule of the average person is filled with many repetitious little actions and habits... attention to the details of the job or the home... routine "howdy" or "good morning" others indeed, so little of each day is dedicated to quiet, uplifting meditation.

Suburban Scene 'Children of the World' Will Benefit From Ghosts, Goblins on Halloween

by BARBARA GANSCHOW

Parties Fete Miss Boothe and Fiance

Yellow begonias and pale blue tapers on white cloths graced individual tables at a cocktail and dinner party Friday evening for Marcia Elinor Boothe and her fiance, Dr. Lawrence Alfred Stoll. Hosts for the event were Dr. and Mrs. Harry Hosmer of Grosse Pointe.

Exquisite arrangements of yellow begonias were used throughout the house. A gift table, piled high with gaily wrapped packages of lingerie for the bride-elect, was skirted in white and yellow net with garlands of ivy caught up at the corners by yellow and blue mums.

NOVEMBER 3 is the altar date chosen by the couple. Rev. Robert D. Dewey of First Congregational church, Birmingham, will solemnize the rites at Mayflower Congregational church Detroit.

Mrs. George David Armstrong, Jr., of Detroit, will attend her sister and Jack Hayward of Hillcrest road, Southfield township, is to be best man. Only members of the immediate family will witness the ceremony, after which Marcia's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Raymond William Walmoth of Sandy lane, Foxcroft, are planning a reception in the state suite at the Statler.

ALSO FETTING the bride-to-be was the buffet dinner given recently by Mrs. Richard L. Cron of Suffield avenue. Decorating stems of the wine glasses were white ribbons, with the names Marcia and Larry imprinted, centered with tiny pink rosebuds. The same arrangements were tied to handles of white umbrellas covered with brilliants, centering the tables.

Shower gifts were placed under a pink silk umbrella on a white covered table and pink and white floral bouquets completed the decorations.

Mrs. John G. Carmichael of Hampton road was hostess at a table top shower last night at her home on Hampton road, and Wednesday, Mrs. Stanley Jesson of Sodon Lake drive, Bloomfield Hills, will honor Marcia at a luncheon and linen shower.

THE WALMOTHS will entertain at cocktails for several of their daughter's young friends Nov. 1, and Larry's parents, the H. Theodore Stolls of Orchard way, Foxcroft, are hosting the rehearsal dinner the following evening.

To Wed Frank W. Mulholland

Announcement of the engagement of her daughter, Katherine Jane, is made by Mrs. Dorothy Jane Hall of East Long Lake road, Bloomfield Hills.

Kay's fiance is Frank W. Mulholland, son of Mrs. F. J. Mulholland of Ridgedale avenue and the late Mr. Mulholland.

The bride-elect is a student at the Fiance's alma mater, Michigan State university.

(See SUBURBAN SCENE Page 2, Sec. 2)

KAY HALL

Composer Floyd Discusses Opera 'Susannah'

Key workers on the Women's committee for Detroit Grand Opera association gathered for a brunch Tuesday at the home of Mrs. John S. French of Lahser to hear a talk by the young and recently made famous composer Carlisle Floyd. His opera "Susannah" will be performed Sunday, Nov. 11, at 2:30 p.m. It will take the place of the originally scheduled "Tempest."

Through Erich Leinsdorf, director of the New York City Opera company, "Susannah" was presented for the first time in New York last month and was received with such acclaim from music critics all over that the board of directors of the Detroit Grand Opera association felt they should take the very first opportunity to bring it here, remarked Mrs. Gunnar Karlstrom.

A FAVORITE star in the title role will be Phyllis Curtin, also Jon Crain and Norman Treigle.

Assisting the hostess were Mrs. Vincent van Fleet and Mrs. C. Norman Fry. Mrs. Walker A. Williams was in charge of the program.

Among those attending were Mrs. William S. Edwards, Mrs. Victor Brink, Mrs. Robert Barik, Mrs. James O. Wright, Mrs. Barney Clark, Mrs. William H. McCaugh, Mrs. Paul V. Kogroft, Mrs. Roy T. Hawkins and Mrs. Matthew Cammareri.

Adams Square Dance

Adams PTA has scheduled a square dance Friday at 8 p.m. at the school. Beginners will arrive at 8:30 p.m. Co-chairmen are Mrs. and Mrs. Peter Schubert and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cummings. Tickets are available at the door.

PLACING PROPER IDENTIFICATION LABELS on canisters for their role in a "UNICEF Halloween" are (from left) Gerda Ann Raffaele, Karen Jarvis and Diane Harrington of Girl Scout troops 14 and 364 of Pierce school.

By FRAN MAIER

Little ghosts ringing doorbells next week will be chanting "the trick is to treat". Carrying canisters with black and orange labels and wearing a similar tag will be their identification for collecting pennies, nickels and dimes for UNICEF. This unique Halloween program will be some of Birmingham children's way of sharing with "all the world's children."

The magic performed by wide-eyed trusting Birmingham youngsters will depend on "you" ... to help treat their cousin overseas with "your" treats for UNICEF, the United Nation's Children's Fund.

THIS PROGRAM could prove magic for Birmingham, too! For when your doorbell rings next Tuesday and a youngster in Halloween costume cries "Trick or Treat for UNICEF," residents can breathe easily in the knowledge that the Halloween pranks of junior years are no more.

Troop 14, intermediate scouts of Pierce school, will wear costumes as usual, but will collect pennies, nickels and dimes for UNICEF as their Halloween treat.

CARRYING UNICEF canisters instead of treat bags will also be members of Embury Methodist church's Youth Fellowship of junior and senior high school people. They will be ringing doorbells from 7 to 8 p.m. Tuesday.

At Community Congregational church in Lathrop Village, church school children are picking up badges and labels Sunday morning. They will use them to identify themselves when they make the rounds Halloween night.

Music Clubs

Meet Mon. in Birmingham

Members of Birmingham Musicals will play host to the southeastern district of Michigan Federation of Music clubs at its annual meeting Monday in First Methodist church, Birmingham.

Assisting Mrs. Herbert H. Gardner of Aspen road, chairman of the event, are Mrs. Elmer C. Rosenberg of Yosemite Blvd., registration; Mrs. Robert L. Tate, Westchester way, church arrangements; and Mrs. Arthur Roeben, Greenwood avenue, luncheon reservations.

FOLLOWING a coffee hour and registration Monday morning, the business session will convene at 10 a.m.

Luncheon is scheduled for 12:30 with Mrs. Gilbert Burrell of Lansing, newly elected president of the federation, greeting the members. A musical invocation is to be sung by a quartette from Pontiac Tuesday Musicals.

The program will include selection by soprano Mary Gardner Parlee accompanied by Lois Holmes; and an instrumental ensemble composed of Nancy Kasperak, flute, Jean Hohmeyer, violin, Flora Wager, cello, and Lois Holmes, piano. Royal Oak Musicals chorus will also perform.

Parties Honor

Carol McClelland

Carol McClelland has been a busy girl since the announcement of her engagement and approaching marriage to Richard R. Magnuson of Clair Shores.

Mary Mullin and Alice Harabedian entertained at a personal shower for the bride-elect and Mrs. Vincent van Fleet and Mrs. C. Norman Fry. Mrs. Walker A. Williams was in charge of the program.

Among those attending were Mrs. William S. Edwards, Mrs. Victor Brink, Mrs. Robert Barik, Mrs. James O. Wright, Mrs. Barney Clark, Mrs. William H. McCaugh, Mrs. Paul V. Kogroft, Mrs. Roy T. Hawkins and Mrs. Matthew Cammareri.

Gifts for the kitchen were presented by the bride-elect at a party Monday evening in the home of Mrs. Dwight Baldwin of Forest street.

Mrs. Raymond Klein has sent out invitations to a pantry shower Friday evening at her home in Mt. Clemens.

Carol is the daughter of the Drayton McClellands of Trapani road, Bloomfield Hills. She and her fiance plan a Nov. 10 wedding at First Methodist church, Birmingham.

CWVS Schedules

Fall Meeting

Mrs. Harry C. Schaefer of Squaw Lake road will be among members of Zeta Tau Alpha sorority serving as hostesses at Northville state hospital Nov. 1 at 10:30 a.m. when delegates and members of College Women's Volunteer Service gather for their fall meeting and luncheon.

Members and delegates of CWVS, from this area, include Mrs. John M. Campbell, Mrs. E. F. Lau, Mrs. John Sigler, Mrs. M. J. Patterson and Mrs. John Schramm. North Suburban alumnae of Chi Omega will gather this evening at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. Turin Holloway, 1424 Henrietta.

A travel talk and pictures of his European trip are to be presented by V. P. Peters, Mrs. Walter Koch of Huntington Woods is handling reservations.

Birthdays, anniversaries, guests, births, parties are all news-call the society editor about them.

Pembroke Teacher To Marry

Miss Dena M. Hallock, kindergarten teacher at Pembroke school, is engaged to marry Manly A. Tyson of East Ruffner avenue, Birmingham. Their wedding will be solemnized Nov. 21 at Miss Hallock's home.

The bride-elect has worked with kindergarten age children in the public school system here for many years, teaching at Barnum and Adams before going to Pembroke.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Hallock, 691 Ann street. A graduate of Wayne university, she received her master's degree from the University of Michigan.

Pre-nuptial parties for the bride-to-be got under way last Thursday when Elfreda Purchase and Lydia Terrill entertained at a shower.

Another shower is planned this evening at the Glenhurst avenue home of Mrs. Donald Plumstead, with Mrs. C. C. Richards as co-hostess. November 13 is circled on the calendar for a party to be given by Mrs. Fred Protheroe of Hatma street.

Grace Mack Weds Robert Campbell In Rites Witnessed by 400 Guests

Upon returning from a wedding trip to Acapulco, Mexico, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Graham Campbell will make their home in Birmingham. Their marriage was solemnized at five o'clock Friday afternoon in Kirk-in-the-Hills.

Four hundred guests witnessed the ceremony performed by Rev. Harold McDowell. Mrs. Erwin Magnuson of Birmingham and her husband were guests at a reception in Orchard Lake country club.

THE BRIDE is the former Grace Mack, daughter of the Hugh Ross Macks of Old Salem court. Her husband is the son of Mrs. W. W. Campbell of Redding road and the late Mr. Campbell.

For her wedding day, Grace selected a gown of white Italian silk, beau de soie designed with a point d'ee neckline, short sleeves, elongated bodice and bouffant skirt extending into a court train. Seed pearl embroidered lace was applied over the sleeves, neckline and skirt.

A white silk beau de soie cap appliqued with heirloom rose point lace secured her double tiered silk illusion veil. Lilies-of-the-valley, carnations and white ivy were arranged for her bouquet.

SIX ATTENDANTS wearing ivory corded faille frocks preceded the bride down the aisle. Mrs. L. Ray Vahue of Perryton, Tex., was her sister's matron of honor. Maid of honor was Jan Coll of Birmingham and bridesmaids were Mrs. Hugh R. Mack, Jr., and Helen Hutchinson of Birmingham, Mrs. M. Keith Edwards of Wichita, Kansas, and Mrs. James C. Hook of Grand Rapids.

Matching bolero jackets trimmed in satin topped their gowns. Complementing their costumes were ivory feathered hats and bouquets of fuchsia mums, sweetheart roses and tropical foliage.

LOUIS LAYTON Banks came from Mamoronek, N. Y., to be best man for his brother-in-law.

MRS. ROBERT G. CAMPBELL

THERE ARE BOOKS for young and old at the American Association of University Women book sale, held this week in the Detroit Edison lobby. Norman, 3, and Peter, 5, sons of the John B. Murphys of Larchlea, check through "picture" books, while mother looks for reading matter stacked on many tables.

'Solid Gold Cadillac' Wins Applause, Laughter

By FRAN MAIER

After "first night" jitters on Friday, Birmingham Village Players got "The Solid Gold Cadillac" rolling into high gear last Saturday evening, winning plenty of applause and laughter with a fast-moving comedy.

The show will be presented again tomorrow and Saturday at the Chestnut street Playhouse. Curtain time is 9 p.m. In a well-rounded cast, Walter F. Skinner's performance stood out, although there were several excellent supporting players. In the role of Ed McKeever, former head of General Products, curvy who had taken a high government job, Mr. Skinner earned many a chuckle and a tremendous hand for his pantomime, "Spartacus to the Gladiators." He continued that pace throughout the show.

AS MISS LOGAN, McKeever's secretary, Mrs. Horton Allen did a clever caricature of a busy executive's helper, and Mrs. Richard C. (Barbara) Ogleby filled a strapping gold bathing suit very well in the role of Miss L. Arriere, a model.

Robert T. Miller played the part of secretary on the General Products board of directors to the hilt; that is, he was the timid fellow always ready with a knife in his office.

North Adams Area

Club Women Share Talents At Fair for 'Members Only'

HOBBIES AND HANDICRAFTS of fellow members will be shared at Osage branch's fair Nov. 5. Showing fruits of their labor are (from left) Mrs. Bruce Washburn, chairman, Mrs. Oscar Oldberg, Mrs. Ray C. Roberts and Mrs. Fred Stefanski.

Osage branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association, organized in the past year, is planning its first fall fair—a fund raising project. The event will follow the Nov. 5 meeting at the home of Mrs. Hugh T. Carney, 5717 Sussex road, Birmingham. Mrs. P. H. Hamly, president, will conduct the business session at 1 p.m.

The fair will be open to members only and will include such items as holiday centerpieces, baked goods, jams, jellies, canned goods, place mats, unique pin cushions, plants and various handmade articles including aprons, knitted goods, place mats and pot holders.

Mrs. B. S. Washburn is chairman of the fair and her committee includes Mrs. W. P. Potts, Mrs. A. P. Ulbrich, Mrs. Ray Roberts, Mrs. James P. Charters and Mrs. William Dewey.

At the tea table will be Mrs. J.