MRS. LOUIS F. BARRIBEAU

Barribeau-Miller Wedding Solemnized at Holy Name

Three hundred guests witnessed the double ring ceremony Saturday at Holy Name church, Birmingham, uniting in marriage Marilyn Marie Miller and Louis F. Barribeau. Rev. Edmund Schwager solemnized the nuptial mass.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Miller of Keego Harbor. Mr. and Mrs. J. Louis Barribeau of Oakland drive, Birmingham, are parents of the groom.

Marilyn's princess style bridal gown was fashioned of off white Italian silk tulle over tulle. Alencon lace applique outlined the modified Sabrina neckline on the long sleeved bodice and the paneled skirt terminated in a fan train.

Seed pearls and brilliant trimmed the DeLion style headpiece securing her anger tip length veil of silk illusion. Marilyn's white prayer book originally was carried by her mother when she married. It was adorned with gardenias and stephanotis with long ribbon streamers accented by fern and stephanotis.

MRS. DONALD Dubats of Pontiac served as matron of honor for her sister. Her flock of peau de crystal in a frosted tangerine shade was designed on princess lines with an Italian neckline, and long streamers in a deeper shade floating from the back yoke over the waist length skirt. Her shoes and tailored low headband with half veil matched her gown and bronze mums composed her bouquet.

The bridesmaids, Lillian Bullock and Mrs. John H. Miller of Pontiac and the groom's sister, Mrs. Frank Lewandowski of Birmingham, wore costumes identical to the honor maid's. They carried cascade arrangements of tangerine mums.

Best man was John Rose of Birmingham. Guests were seated by James Pettier, John Manning, Martin Scanlon and James Gittre of Detroit and Daniel Costello of Dearborn.

MRS. MILLER'S street length dress of beige peau de sole with a lace back panel was complemented by a white headed hat. The mother of the groom chose a moss green velvet hat and bag to match her peau de sole gown. Their corsages were of cymbidium orchids; Rotunda Inn, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon in the Pocono mountains. The bride's going away ensemble was a black wool boucle suit trimmed in velvet with black velvet accessories and a turquoise coat. They will make their home in Birmingham.

STARS OF TELEVISION, "Cactus Dan" and "Sagebrush Shorty" will be on hand to delight the young patrons of the fair with their humorous banter.

Television Personalities To Entertain the Kiddies

"Sagebrush Shorty" of WJBK-TV and "Cactus Dan" of WJTV-TV will be on hand to add to the fun-filled line-up at the Quorton PTA Fair Monday, October 25. The popular local television stars will donate their time to benefit the PTA's annual money-raising project.

"Sagebrush" and his wooden-headed partners, "Bronco Billy Buttons" and "Skinny Dugan" will take time off in their busy daily television schedule to delight the young patrons of the fair with their humorous banter.

"Cactus Dan," Channel 4's cowboy philosopher and musician, will entertain with western songs, guitar playing, and the telling of anecdotes. In private life "Cactus" is working on his Master's degree in psychology.

"Have you an ounce of Scottish blood in you? If so you will be thrilled by the piping and drumming of three authentic Scots," remarks Mrs. Gordon Craig. They are members of The Chrysler Corporation Klitie band and will appear at the fair through the courtesy of Chrysler.

THE QUORTON FAIR, to which the public is invited, is scheduled from 3 until 8 p.m. at the school.

Mrs. John Main, fair chairman, reports that there will be many other new entertainments this year. There will be no long food lines as one's meal ticket will designate what time to eat and there will also be a snack bar supplying sandwiches and drinks. The pony rides will embody new safety features in the presence of many guiding fathers and the use of
