Columnist Inez Robb, House Guest of Mrs. William Aulepp

Inez Robb, columnist, was a recent houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. William Aulepp of Lahser road. Mrs. Aulepp, a journalism graduate, became a life-long friend of Miss Robb when both attended the University of Missouri school for journalism.

Miss Robb, who lives in a penthouse in New York City, was here to speak in the Celebrity Series at the Esquire theater in Grosse Pointe, at a luncheon given by the Theta Sigma Phi journalism fraternity and the Fashion group of Detroit.

Between luncheons, parties and lectures, Mrs. Aulepp gave a tea honoring Miss Robb. This weekend Mr. and Mrs. Aulepp are looking forward to the arrival of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William W. Aulepp, Jr., from Marmaroneck, N. Y., who will be here for a two week visit. Mr. Aulepp, Jr. is an audio engineer for NBC in New York. During the Democratic convention, Bill was seen several times on television interviewing delegates with his walkie-talkie.

Monday Mrs. Aulepp and the Aulepp, Jr.s are going to spend a week with grandmother, Mrs. William C. Aulepp in Webster Grove, Mo., a suburb of St. Louis. The following week they will return here to visit and to see a few friends.

A weekend in New York with side trips through the eastern states was recently enjoyed by Mr. and Mrs. Lee Keating of Jackson Park lane. They left Oct. 11 to visit Mrs. Keating's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Merkert in Albany, N. Y. While there, they went to New York to see Judy Garland at the Palace and have dinner at Toots Shore. Saturday they drove up to Vermont and on Sunday were honored with a brunch given by Mrs. Merkert. Monday they went to Woodstock to see the art colony. After a full and busy weekend they returned Tuesday afternoon.

A bar shower was given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reason for Nancy Flanagan and Emory H. (Joe) Parke Friday evening. In their home on Old Mill road, after the guests of honor opened their gifts, Mrs. Reason served a buffet lunch to 50 guests.

400 Youngsters Expected At Area Halloween Party

Preparations are being completed for the community Halloween party sponsored by Sub 2 Wednesday evening. About 400 children are expected.

"We hope to give the children a good time," said Julian Offenstien, association president. "The program, beginning at 7:00 p.m., will include assembly in age groups, a grand parade, judging of costumes, talent acts, awarding of prizes, refreshments, entertainment and favors."

Children will be instructed in the grocery store, and parents are requested to see small children have name, address and age pinned to their costumes.

Prospective talent acts, for which prizes will be awarded, must be screened at the school before the party day. Costume prizes will be awarded in three age groups, 2 to 5 years; 6 to 9; and 10 to 12. The party is for all Walnut Lake school district children. However, because Birmingham school parties will occupy the older age groups, this is primarily for children under 12.

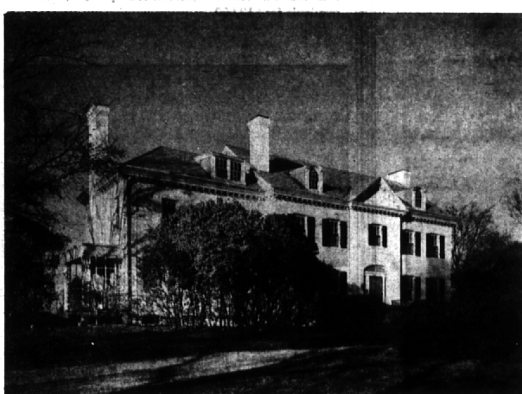

Adult personnel are to report to the committee table for instructions before the 7:00 p.m. party time.

Bloomfield Farms residents met at West Bloomfield township hall October 15 for their first meeting. Alfons Monas, chairman for the meeting at which almost every family was represented, requested Mrs. Jerry Westerfield to make notes of the proceedings. Mrs. John Byers, with the assistance of Mrs. Charles Lory, registered those present.

The association as legally incorporated was discussed by Edward
