Explorer Scout Post LC-1 Plans Civic Service Project

During the Halloween season, explorer scouts of post LC-1 sponsored by the Lathrup Village association, will cooperate with Lathrup Village police force under the direction of Police Chief Kenneth Farnum and explorer advisor Vince Zetzel. The 10 boys who form the post will act as observers riding with officers patrolling the neighborhood. As part of their explorer civic service, they will assist in protecting property and youngsters on the streets after dark.

Mrs. O. W. Carson, chairman of the Lathrup Woman's club annual charity party says, "Nov. 3 is the only date all year when you can have a wonderful time, and still be doing your bit to help in a lot of good causes." The party committee has reserved the big gym at Southfield 10 school from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. and hope to see it filled with dancing couples. There will be square dancing called by the popular Dick Lewis, and round dancing. Committee members are Mrs. H. F. Froehlich, Mrs. A. J. Miller, Mrs. Alvin H. Kraatz and Mrs. Lyle K. Robinson. Proceeds from the party will be used by the Woman's club in their girl work, the United Fund, Goodfellows, March of Dimes and veteran work.

Girl scouts of Lathrup neighborhood are taking full advantage of the pleasant fall weather to enjoy outdoor activities. Troop 159 held a hot dog roast in the George MacLachlan backyard with mothers invited. Troop leaders are Mrs. George MacLachlan and Mrs. Norman Nielsen. It's a GIRL at the Everett Sweet's! Nov. 10, weighing 7 lbs., 4 oz., she will be called Cheryl.

Republican precinct chairman Mrs. George Rostow and Mrs. E. F. Mehal were on hand to welcome Vice President Richard Nixon upon his arrival in Pontiac Monday evening. Mrs. Rostow wore a sparkling "like" button on a car and wool dress with matching hat and carried a scarf of stone martin with casual elegance. Mrs. Mehal's dark beauty was set off by a top of turquoise velvet.

Cubs of Pack LC-2 met in Lathrup school last week to watch the antics of "Mikky" the Twin Pine clown. Sharing the fun were their guests, Cubs of Pack LC-1. Boys in den 3 received the monthly inspection trophy.

Bobcat badges were awarded to Bruce Allan, Greg Kolpus, John McCracken, George Moore, Richard Swiney, Scott McKay, Kenneth Tompor, Daniel Murphy, Robert Willis, Walter Baughman, Douglass Provencher, Brent Fleury, Rick Lesley, David Smith, David Douglas, Dennis DuBois, Gregory Huntley, Ryan Schroeder, Edward Wolan and Gerald Dervish.

Bruce Rankin received a silver star for wolf badge, and Donald Miller his bear badge. Craig Roy was awarded his wolf badge with a gold arrow, and Lee Bocci also became a wolf.

Here and there in Lathrup: Councilman Fred Johnson hurrying to council meeting worrying about being late. Ex-Lathrupite Dorothy Witherspoon attending painting classes in Birmingham.

Ed Haller, always an interested spectator, missing from council meeting. Mrs. Earl M. Doig, Lathrup Woman's Club luncheon chairman, working hard with her committee, and creating a wonderful luncheon.

Delores and Larry Hourihan seen at the dedication of the new Ford auditorium in Detroit. Ginny Russell's cheerful wave and smile as she hurries past at Northland.

Association Members Hear Property Tax Discussed by Twp. Supervisor

Arno Hulet, Bloomfield township supervisor, discussed the basis of the township property tax at a meeting of the Orchard Valley-Hilltop association last week at Bloomfield town hall.

A detailed tax cost breakdown revealed that out of $46.67 per thousand assessed valuation, $32.85 is used for school support. Hulet also pointed out that road maintenance of the 135 miles of subdivision roads in the township is the responsibility of Oakland County.

Carter Chamberlain, association president, reported on Bloomfield township civil defense organization. Subcommittees are required to complete civil defense plans. Volunteers from the association will attend a civil defense meeting Oct. 29 at Bloomfield town hall and further appointments of assistants will be named.

Cautious driving in the subdivision during the slippery weather to come was asked residents by Chamberlain. Children of the area use Holiday drive hill for sliding. Chamberlain pointed out.

An appeal was made for a 100% attendance of association members at the next meeting, the third Wednesday in January when a new board of directors will be elected. Meetings, previously held Thursday evenings, have been changed to Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Ellis of Castle drive traveled through the south for ten days recently. Through the beautiful Shenandoah Valley and over the Blue Ridge parkway, they stopped in Asheville, N. C. where they visited the college craft center.

On through the Smokies to Gatlinburg and Boreas, Ky. Here also they made several purchases of the pieces of hand crafts made by the college students.

Through the moories which they took along the way, they hope they were able to catch some of the many beauties of nature which were particularly attractive this time of year.

A new arrival, Jeffrey William, was welcomed at the Richard Teague home, West Maple road on Oct. 3.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Kipp, Val new tri-level on San Diego avenue. Morris is supervisor of general accounting in the special products division of Ford Motor Co. Mr. Morris is interested in golf and Mrs. Morris names bridge first and sewing second on her list of hobbies.

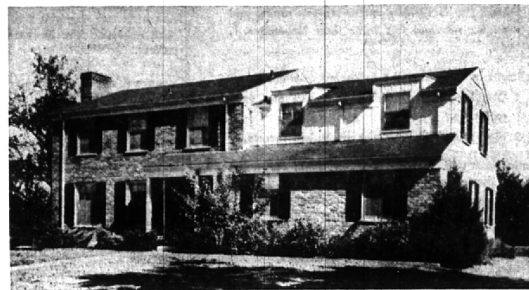

Have you met Alice and Joseph Brochu who have moved into their new home on West California drive? Married in September, the Brochus have just returned from a tour of the East coast. Brochu is an industrial engineer with Chrysler Corp., and an ardent golfer.
