South Berkshires Nimrod Dr. Brenton Shiffer Brings Home 600-Pound Elk

Dr. Brenton Shiffer of Vernon drive returned Saturday by plane from a ten-day hunting trip in the rugged country near Virginia City, Mont., where he joined a party of hunters from Detroit, Chicago and Los Angeles.

The nimrod each bagged an elk and one of the hunters shot a huge black bear. Dr. Shiffer's cow elk weighed over 600 pounds.

The men camped out, slept in tents and discovered the nights were quite cool—cool enough, that is, to find a thin film of ice on their drinking water each morning. The party also visited in Butte, but were much impressed with the historic museums and Virginia City itself—the home of the vigilantes—now a resurrected ghost town of the old west, where everything stands just as it was before the turn of the century.

An interesting guest visiting Dr. and Mrs. Douglas J. Wood of Marimor drive, is Mrs. Thomas Burchardt of Oslo, Norway, a former classmate of Mrs. Woods. Mrs. Burchardt plans to spend a month in this country before returning to Oslo where Mr. Burchardt is engaged in the lumbering business.

Classmates and neighborhood chums of Dennis Foley were entertained Saturday evening at a Halloween party at his home on Vernon drive. Pumpkins, witches, ghosts and owls decorated the recreation room where the youngsters danced, played games and ate popcorn, candy and peanuts. Later in the evening cider, doughnuts and hot dogs were served.
