

Maurice Reardons Entertain House Guest for Week's Visit

Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Reardon of Brooklawn Court Troyton Manor, entertained as houseguest for a week Mrs. Reardon's aunt, Mrs. Edward Taggart of Trenton, N. J.

Mrs. Taggart made the trip by plane and on her return planned to fly as far as Newark then go from there to Trenton in a helicopter. Before leaving New Jersey, she saw Princess Grace and Prince Ranier, now visiting the U. S. Mrs. Taggart reports according to local rumor, among the Princess's luggage were twelve trunks of maternity clothes.

During her aunt's visit, Mrs. Reardon entertained at coffee, inviting neighbors to meet her aunt. She also entertained Detroit friends and former neighbors at another party for Mrs. Taggart.

Busy with wedding activities were Mr. and Mrs. John Ward, Jr. of Witherbee road, Troyton. They had as houseguests for the week-end her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. George W. McElroy who came from their Ada, Okla. home to attend the wedding of Mrs. Ward's sister, Kay McElroy to Donald Pershing Campbell on Saturday at St. Mary's church, Redford.

Mr. Ward was an usher and Mrs. Ward was one of six bridesmaids. After the ceremony, they attended the reception held at Plum Hollow.

Feet, too, grow strong and straight in 'child Life' ARCH FEATURE SHOES

Arch Feature shoes by Child Life are especially made for growing feet. They help develop strong normal arches and arches set on the surface, you can't tell them from regular shoes.

Needlework Guilders Recruit Members

Birmingham-Bloomfield Needlework Guilders are busy this fall recruiting new members and directors.

Included in the new directors (each of whom brings in at least 10 new members) honored at a tea last week by the guild were Mrs. Leroy C. Biske, Jr., Mrs. E. E. Hammonds, Mrs. C. Mark Harper, Jr., Mrs. Donald Neill, Mrs. Frank Reschke, Mrs. Chad Ritchie, Mrs. Stephen Rogers, Mrs. Robert Roth, Mrs. William Saunders, Mrs. Harry Swan and Mrs. Charles Wilder.

Bloomfield Open Hunt club is the scene of a meeting today at which the guild's board members and section presidents will discuss plans for this year's ingathering of new garments.

Section presidents, each responsible for tabulating the contributions of at least 55 members, are Mrs. Dwight P. Allen, Mrs. James A. Beresford, Mrs. Benjamin Brewster, Mrs. George W. Davis, Mrs. William L. Graham, Mrs. D. A. Kalmback, Mrs. Marvin G. Kirm, Mrs. Alfred LaBelle, Mrs. David W. Lee, Mrs. Morrie L. Liles, Mrs. Carleton C. Patterson, Mrs. John W. Sanders, Mrs. John W. Shenfield, Mrs. J. Thomas Smith, Mrs. Thomas Snelham and Mrs. W. Clyde Worley.

Inspiring to members is the thought that by giving new clothing they also give new hope to the recipients. Membership is open to any person desirous of contributing two new articles of clothing or household goods.
