Mrs. Charles D. Layman of Franklin will speak to Kappa Delta sorority alumnae chapter Tuesday evening on "Legal Rights of Women." The meetings will be in the Huntington Woods home of Mrs. Edward Harley with Mrs. William Dickie and Mrs. Harry Horton assisting the hosts.

LISTENING TO MRS. IRENE SCHNEIDMANN NUGENT, pianist for Birmingham Musicales's first fall program, are Mrs. Andre d'Yvevre, (center) tea chairman, and Mrs. Robert F. Killen.

Birmingham Musicales Group to Hear Works of German, Austrian Composers

Members of The Birmingham Musicales will meet in the auditorium of the Birmingham Community House at two o'clock Thursday afternoon, Oct. 11, for their first program of the season.

They will hear the music of German and Austrian composers as presented by Mrs. Gordon Nugent, pianist, 4159 Walnut Hill, Birmingham, and Mrs. Victor M. Lindquist, soprano, of Waterford. Mrs. Lindquist will be accompanied by Mrs. Addison Oakley.

MRS. NUGENT studied at the State Academy of Music in Vienna, and made her professional debut in that city in 1945. In New York City she studied at the Juilliard School of Music, and in 1949 made her debut in Chicago at Orchestra Hall under the sponsorship of Tauno Hannikainen. In Detroit, she has appeared with the Detroit Symphony Orchestra under the direction of Walter Fools. She has played for audiences at Cranbrook and Albion College. She will begin Thursday's program with Schubert's Impromptu in B flat Major, and Impromptu in E flat Major, and second group includes Intermezzo and A Major, op. 118, by Brahms, and Rage over the last Penny by Beethoven.

MRS. LINDQUIST began her studies in Detroit at the Institute of Musical Art where she was a pupil of Frederick A. Protheroe. At present she is a soprano soloist at Christ Church, Cranbrook. Her first presentation on Thursday's program will be Marietta's Lied zur Laute from "Die Todt Stuhl" by E. W. Korngold, and she will close the program with Ziegelmarsch by Richard Strauss, Suppische Ode and Der Jager by Hugo Wolf.

MRS. ROBERT F. KILLEN, of Yosemite road, Birmingham, is chairman of all arrangements for the day. Mrs. Andre d'Yvevre, 541

Wilmington drive, will be in charge of the tea which will follow the program. Her assistants will be Mrs. Nelson Hanston, 2168 Yorkshire road; Mrs. Joseph R. Beckley, 3550 Brookdale Park road; and Mrs. Lloyd Southard, all of whom are on the table decorations committee. Assisting at the tea table will be Mrs. Frank M. Heath, 18499 Hillcrest boulevard; Mrs. Richard O. Suter, 13500 Buckingham road; and Mrs. W. Clifton Randall, 770 Shirley drive. Mrs. Bessie McMechan, 251 Elmwood, and Mrs. Delbert L. Tate, 959 Westchester way, and Mrs. Norman-Lyle, will pour.

OTHER committee members serving for this occasion are Mrs. Robert C. Gibson of Lenthil court, chairman of hospitality, assisted by Mrs. A. Ray Swartz of Birmingham road, Mrs. Chester B. Cornick of Hanna, Mrs. Emerson C. Brown of Brookdale, and Mrs. Henry E. Edwards of Brookdale. Mrs. John C. Bonning, Sr., of Dunblaine and Mrs. Ted C. Sexton

Bloomfield Village

Room Mothers Host Series Of Get-Acquainted Teas

Mothers in the village have been just as busy as their offspring since the beginning of the school term. Teas and desserts have been given by room mothers and their co-hostesses to acquaint mothers with various PTA projects.

At this time everyone is turning eyes and efforts to the evening of Oct. 20 when the school's annual fair will be held. It is the only PTA-sponsored fund-raising project throughout the year.

Among the room mothers who entertained within the past two weeks are Mrs. Robert Fisher, Mrs. Wayne Andros, Mrs. Charles Huntoon, Mrs. Fred Adams, Mrs. John Hays, Mrs. Morris Purdy, Mrs. William Grimes, Mrs. William Fred Fowler, Mrs. Martin Kostere, Mrs. John Petras, Mrs. Richard Allman and Mrs. Edwin Olsen.

Mary Jo Yates who received her education in South America where her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. William Yates Jr. of Glenary road lived for 14 years, is now living with her parents and is teaching at the Parker school in Royal Oak. Mary Jo has been teaching the last three years in Caracas, Venezuela.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred H. Cowin motored to Grayling with six other couples last weekend and traveled up the Au Sable by canoe. Other local couples on the trip were the Paul Shavers of Birmingham and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Hascall of Foxcroft.

Pat Cronin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Cronin entertained nine guests recently at a dinner party to celebrate his tenth birthday. Jack O'Hara attended, as did Fred Hoffman, Mark Springer and Teddy Heinz.

Mrs. Neil W. Hyde of Tilbury road is entertaining the Tri Delta sorority afternoon group at her home Oct. 8 at a dessert bridge. Village residents on the Orchard Lake country club bowling team this year are Karl Pierce, Mr. and Mrs. Wes Rostick, Mr. and Mrs. Carl G. A. Flores, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Heier, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huntoon, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Henny, Dr. and Mrs. Chauncey Burke, Mrs. Fred Adams, Dr. and Mrs. Fred Fowler, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Leahy and the Robert Reinhardt.

Agenda Club members and their husbands were entertained Saturday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Longenecker of North Glenary road. After dinner an evening of canasta followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Dunsford of Sunnyside are leaving for a trip that will take them to Bellefont, Penn. and a trip through the Smoky mountains. Then, after a few days at home and if time and weather permits, they plan to visit northern Michigan.

Robert D. Wiley and Fred C. Pew of Birmingham are up in New Brunswick salmon fishing. They will be in Mr. Wiley's plane and expect to be gone about ten days.

Gregory Witbeck, son of the A. V. Witbecks of Cranbrook road, entertained a group of his young friends at a dance Friday evening at the Harmonie club. His most list included Sue Schaefer, Emily Minor, Mike Miles, Nancy Wood and Jack Gurney.
