Good Friday service; co-educational party dance and various projects for the YMCA.
 Other officers are Pat Berry, vice-president; Henry Baltzer, secretary, and Richard Ward, treasurer.

On Nov. 23, 45 members are invited to attend the showing "Seven Wonders of the World" at the Music hall in Detroit. The 'Y' bus will leave the 'Y' at 400 E. Lincoln.

Gra-Y Clubs are getting underway at Adams, Baldwin, Bloomfield Village, Pierce, and Vaughan Schools. The purpose of the Gra-Y program is to aid each boy or girl in developing a sense of teamwork, fairplay, friends, etc. Each week the boys and girls meet in the school gym to play games; such as, soccer, dodge ball, basketball, and relays. Children from eight to eleven years of age are eligible to join.

The annual "Gra-Y Overnite" to Camp Obiyea will be held on Teachers Institute Day October 29, 30.

The first 40 boys and girls that pay the registration fee will be transported on the bus—others will have to make arrangements with their parents. George Ewing will act as Camp Director. Deadline for registration is Oct. 26.
