

Charles E. James
Joins Phoenix Bank

Effective October 1, Charles E. James, well-known Detroit investment officer, joined the Valley National Bank investment department as assistant vice president. James is assigned to the bank's portfolio and municipal bond division. James presently is assistant trust officer of the Manufacturers National Bank of Detroit. Since 1949, when he became associated with that institution, he has headed its trust investment division. Prior to 1949 and following

World War II service as a battery commander with the rank of captain, James was employed by a Detroit brokerage house as a security analyst.

HE IS A GRADUATE of the University of Michigan, majoring in economics, and later studied at the Detroit College of Law. Prominent in mid-Western investment circles, James is a member of the Security Analysts Society, Bond Club and Municipal Advisory Council—all of Detroit—and is chairman of the savings bond committee, Investment Bankers Association of America, Detroit chapter.

He, his wife and three children will establish their new home in Phoenix.

Harold Turner, Inc. Shows Off New 1957 Ford Cars

The new 1957 Fords will be on display locally at Harold Turner Ford agency beginning this week. All models available in the new Ford line can be viewed.

For the convenience of the public the showroom at 404 S. Woodward will remain open in the evening until the last person has inspected the cars.

During the introduction period, five new Fords will be awarded to the lucky people who submit winning entry blanks. This contest is held in conjunction with the metropolitan Ford advertising committee.

WALTER WIKOL, 187 Wimbolton, Birmingham, is vacationing at Castle Harbour Hotel, Bermuda. Wikol won the Bermuda holiday in a sales contest sponsored by the E. F. Hauserman Co.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

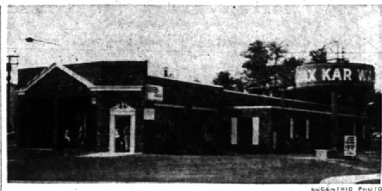

Standard Oil Honors Two Local Dealers

The success of 14 dealers, with a combined total of 341 years of experience in the Western Detroit area, as independent businessmen selling Standard Oil Company products 15 years or more was recognized with the awarding of special service plaques to each of them September 25th.

The dealers, ten of whom have operated their own service station 20 years or longer, are among about 2,500 in the Midwest being honored this year by Standard Oil.

The engraved plaques with the dealer's name and years of service were presented by Frank J. Swindell, Detroit Manager, of Standard Oil at the Dearborn Inn during the Company's Fall Dealer Sales Convention.

DEALERS who received plaques for 20 or more years of service were: Frank E. Sternal, 55 years, 32055 Beverly circle, Birmingham and Tom Kaiser, 26 years, 1984 S. Woodward, Birmingham.

JAX KAR WASH had its grand opening last Thursday with ribbon cutting ceremonies performed by a local Birmingham resident, Mrs. A. Lawson. The new building, the second in the company's chain, is located at 300 S. Hunter. It can be distinguished by a large revolving sign.

W. J. Taylor Named Gear Co. Vice Pres.

A major executive appointment at Gear Grinding Machine Co., Detroit, and its subsidiaries have been announced by Edgar D. Leon, president.

Leon said the company's policy of "investing authority and responsibility in young men" has brought about the naming of William J. Taylor, 1035 Wakefield drive, Birmingham, as vice president and general manager of Republic Gear Co.

The presidency of Republic will be left open temporarily, Leon said, and Taylor will run that subsidiary through his new position.

Taylor moves into Republic from Detroit Bevel, where he served 11 years. He had been vice president, administration, for the past 18 months.

Spinning Ad Agency Moves to B'ham

Rolfe C. Spinning, Inc., Detroit advertising agency, moved to new offices on October 1. The new location, on Woodward avenue at Fourteen Mile road, provides additional space and facilities that will enable the agency to better serve its clients throughout the Michigan area.

The building has every modern facility—air-conditioning, light, roomy offices and a paved, private parking lot adjacent to the building, with access on the Fourteen Mile road.

THE AGENCY was established in 1925 by Rolfe C. Spinning and for nearly 30 years offices were maintained in the Macabees building, Detroit.

A long-time Birmingham resident, Rolfe D. Spinning, 816 Knox, is president of the company. His son, William, 357 Waddington, who has been with the company since he returned from military service in 1945, is treasurer.

MRS. RUSSELL J. CAMERON, 32275 Bingham Road, Birmingham, (right) recently entertained in a different way. Mrs. Cameron invited Mrs. Jack E. Rowe of Watkins Lake (left) and Mrs. Henry M. Wood of Cincinnati to her husband's business, Rose Operating Valve Co., Detroit, to inspect the plant. Cameron, president of the firm showed them his company's one millionth job-engineered valve which had just been gold plated for displaying.
