

Andersen Joins Nankervis Company

The George L. Nankervis Company of Detroit, announced today the appointment of Stanley R. Andersen, 1850 Devonshire, Southfield township to the position of Controller.

Andersen is a graduate of Concordia college and is a member of the Controllers Institute of America, American Institute of Accountants, and the Missouri Society of Certified Public Accountants. Before joining Nankervis he was with the Central Finance Division of the Ford Motor Company.

It's "chime" for a change, say telephone company officials in New York City. They announce that a musical tone device may someday replace the universal "ding-a-ling" signal of the telephone.

BUSINESS BRIEFS

PETER PAN Snack Shop opens its Birmingham store this week at 300 N. Woodward. This is the fifth shop in Michigan for the national chain. At the city location 132 customers can be served with a standard menu during breakfast, lunch and dinner. Hours will be 7 a.m. to 9 p.m. Exterior of the building is distinguished by two large glass walls with white drapes. Interior is a contemporary design with red, yellow and white color combinations. Orders are made from the floor by a phone system back to the kitchen. The building has air conditioning and recessed lighting. A special serving window has been built to serve Jacobson's Beauty Salon which adjoins Peter Pan. Manager of the new restaurant is Joseph Cupari.

Huston Hardware Celebrates 47th Yr.

One of the oldest retail businesses in Birmingham—Huston Hardware—celebrated its 47th birthday this week. The present owner of the company, Paul Kurth has been associated with the store since 1918.

He pointed out that the present building, at 205 N. Woodward was built specifically for the hardware business, back in 1889 when Birmingham was a small farming community.

DURING THOSE days, the store sold all kinds of supplies and equipment, including plows and other farming implements. Store opened at 6:30 a.m. to meet the needs of the early rising farmers. The store has grown considerably from the early days, keeping abreast of the times and presently offers a wide line of hardware and household supplies.

New Bay State Post For James Deneau

James D. Deneau, 25676 Franklin Hills drive, Franklin, has been promoted to Michigan district account executive for Bay State Abrasive Products Company, Westboro, Mass. This is a new position effective September 1. It was announced by S. Gordon Saunders, manager of the Massachusetts company's branch office located at 25600 Princeton road, Inkster, Michigan.

Deneau has been an abrasive engineer for Bay State in the Detroit area since 1948. Prior to this he was affiliated with Peninsula Grinding Wheel Company, Detroit.

Phelps Elected Club President

Walter S. Phelps, 7375 Parkstone lane, Birmingham, an associate general agent for The Ohio National Life Insurance Company, Cincinnati, has been elected president of his company's builders club, an honor group composed of their leading agents.

The election was held at the company convention at Banff Springs hotel, Alberta, Canada, September 10-13. Phelps is a member of the million dollar round table, the industry's most distinguished group, and is a six-time winner of the national quality award earned by underwriters whose production meets the highest professional standards.

Largest gem ever discovered on the North American continent by an individual was found recently by a Dallas, Tex., housewife touring the "Crater of Diamonds," a find-it-yourself diamond field near Murfreesboro, Ark. Valued at $15,000, the 15-carat gem cost her $1.50—the price of admission to the inactive diggings. Its operators will net 25 per cent of the sale value.
