Jack Souder Home Scene Of Two Surprise Parties

It was a gala weekend at the Jack Souders on South Clunbury road, with two large parties going on. Saturday evening a surprise birthday party was given for Mary's mother, Mrs. David Wesley of Devonshire road, Birmingham.

The guest list included relatives from the Detroit area and Port Huron, and an old Port Huron school chum of the honor guest.

On Sunday, the honor guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Souder, Mrs. Jack's parents, also of Devonshire road, who were surprised on their 35th wedding anniversary by 35th wedding anniversary group of Birmingham and Southfield friends. Tables of bridge followed refreshments.

Throng of guests—relatives, old friends and neighbors—were pleased to find that the open house held by the Edward J. Kolosicks of East Darrow road in Bloomington last Sunday was in celebration of the couple's 25th wedding anniversary.

The brilliant sunshine streamed in the windows to highlight the tea table with its punch bowl, dainty sandwiches and silver-decorated cakes. The rooms were decorated with bouquets of gift flowers, and the hostess wore a huge white orchid in honor of the occasion.

A new family in the Braes of Bloomfield is the Charles family on Braesmoor drive, formerly of Birmingham. David, 10½, and Donna, 7½, are enrolled in Walnut Lake school and already happily acclimated to their new location.

Conte is a member of Birmingham Masonic Lodge 41, of the American electrolators society, and the American society for chemical products, Detroit.

Mrs. Conte loves gardening, and has enjoyed her guest visits to meetings of the Walnut Lake Garden club.

The Karl Davies moved here from White Plains, N. Y., into the Foxcroft.

Foxcroft Garden Club Hears Talk On Winter Care of Shrubs, Plants

Foxcroft branch of the Women's National Farm and Garden Association held its first meeting of the season Tuesday, at Belle Isle. Members began the day with a business meeting followed by a box luncheon.

Highlight of the afternoon program was a talk by Ray A. Hemstock, director of the Detroit garden center, on the winter care of shrubs, evergreens and perennials. Following the talk members toured the garden center.

Not much sleep but a heap of fun when four cub scouts from Foxcroft spent Friday night and Saturday at Greenfield Village with 22 boys from the city.

The program started with dinner at Clinton Inn, a refreshing swim and a workout in the gym. This really pleased the boys up for the night's sleep (!) in the dormitory.

On Saturday a tour of the village, museum and grounds sound like a day for the tired but happy fellows. Merritt Hill, Skipper Gaddis, Tommy Hascall and Rick Kershaw.

Visiting with Mr. and Mrs. John Bek this week were Mrs. Bek's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Don H. Rose of San Marino, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hall of Tanglewood court have just returned from a motor trip through the Shenandoah, Blue Ridge and Smoky mountains. They also toured West Virginia, North Carolina, Kentucky and Tennessee.

The Halls report they had a perfect view of four states from Mt. Mitchell. The view extended for some 100 miles. They enjoyed the

South Berkshires Neighborhood Groups Gather Prior to Area's Dinner Dance

Prior to the Berkshire Hills Protective Association dinner dance, held at Birmingham country club Friday evening, area residents entertained at cocktail parties for neighborhood friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Mosdale entertained at their 13 Mile road home for Mr. and Mrs. Upton Brammick, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Light, Mr. and Mrs. Philip Diesel, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Neko, Mr. and Mrs. Alton Cummings, Mr. and Mrs. George Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Walsh, Mr. and Mrs. George Davis, Mr. and Mrs. William Cameron and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Young.

The Russell McKinnay home on Stellar drive was also the scene of a cocktail party. Guests were the Douglas Woods Ralph Morens, Marvin Clines, John Dennans, Roy Forbush and the Irvin Melchers.

Joining the Albert P. Burkes of Vernon drive for cocktails before the dinner dance were Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Quail, Mr. and Mrs. William Cheers, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hall, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Fraser.

Mr. and Mrs. John Long and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Humbert entertained at the Long home on Bermuda lane for Mr. and Mrs. Albert Zimanski, Mr. and Mrs. Dallas Sprinkle, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Vign, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Baughman.

Preparations are being completed by Mrs. James Thompson's junior activities committee for the teen-age platter party for junior high and up age group. It will be Friday evening at 8 p.m. at the Alexander Neko home on Leemore drive.

After spending two weeks in Havana, Cuba, Key West and Miami, Fla., Millie and Donald Selby returned at their home on Bermuda lane. The Selbys spent three days in Key West and aboard a plane for Havana, Cuba, where they enjoyed plenty of sun bathing and swimming and visited the rum distillery, cigar and alligator factories.

Also included in their Havana sightseeing was a tour of the capitol building, presidential palace, the well-known Lady of Mercy Catholic church. For after dark diversion, the Selbys enjoyed Cuban atmosphere at various night spots.

Newcomers to South Berkshires are Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hershberger, Janet, Dick and Cathy of Stellar drive, formerly of Meriden, Conn. Mr. Hershberger, an electrical engineer with Chevrolet engineering, is a graduate of Purdue university and enjoys photography and fishing. Mrs. Hershberger also attended Purdue university and likes to sew. Janet attends Birmingham high and Cathy is at Beverly.

The round robin card benefit of St. Cabrera's Guild will be held Wednesday, Oct. 10, at 1 o'clock. St. Anne's Hall. Guests are welcome.

Veterans' Administration reports that this country now has 22 million living veterans. It states that their average age is 38½ years.

They have two daughters, Debbie, now enrolled in Derby junior high school, and Bonnie, a University of Michigan freshman. Bonnie resides in Stockwell Hall, and is majoring in journalism.

Mrs. Davies is an enthusiastic gardener, in spite of the fact that she rarely gets to see her plants reach maturity before moving. Her other love is weaving, for which she owns her own large loom. She prefers to work with wool, and has recently completed a room size rug.

Brownie scout leaders taking a 16 hour training course at the United Presbyterian church in Southfield are Mrs. Wendell Moore, Mrs. Robert McBride, Mrs. Clare Hellenberg and Mrs. Herbert Marx.

A course at the Community Congregational church in Lathrup for intermediate scout leaders is being attended by Mrs. Ernest Jacobson and Mrs. James Sanborn.

These leaders also attended the outdoor institute given by Southern Oakland girl scouts for leaders of all age levels, together with Mrs. Floyd Layman, Mrs. Maynard Mett, Mrs. Upton Brammick, Mrs. Edward Koback, Mrs. Donald Walsh, Mrs. W. M. Middleton and Mrs. Lee Hanson.

Mrs. Julius Ofenstein was a member of the demonstration staff at the institute.

Mr. and Mrs. G. Peter Blom of West Surrey have as guests this past week Mr. Blom's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Julius Blom of Eau Claire, Wis.

On Wednesday, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Gryson entertained at dinner Dr. and Mrs. Norman Barker and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Roberts both of West Hartford, Conn. This evening the Grysons have planned a dinner party at the Statler hotel for several local and out of town business associates.

Karen Graham, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Graham of Valley Forge, traveled to Hastings last weekend with 30 members of the Birmingham civil air patrol and chaparral for a CAP mission.

Officers of the U. S. Air Force train the boys and girls in drill, guard duty and even a simulated hunt for a lost airplane. Members live in dorms for the weekend and according to Karen it's all most exciting—even the guard duty!
