Charter

over the manner in which the min-utes were being recorded and pub-lished.

41 is unrortunate that a single Commissioner speaking in her ca-pacity as such should attempt to mislead the people and question the honesty and integrity of the majority of those whom you elect-ed.

We, the undersigned, feel confident that if the proposed Charter is adopted three will be no "sham," since we take just pride in the work which we have accomplished pursuant to your mandate. In conclusion, we do in "vimonster" nor do we see Elizabeth Molnar in suit of shining armor on a with borse and carrying the banner of SK. George.
