First Time or Last—Students Leave Home for Campus Suburban Scene

BARBARA GANSCHOW

Wardrobe Survey Time Is Here

Skirts and sweaters are coming out of moth balls again as they're donned by local coeds trekking back to colleges for the fall term. Phones are kept buzzing with gals comparing notes on what's the most popular attire for back-to-school wardrobes.

... this seems to vary with the school ... some allow Bermudas in the classrooms while others have a strict rule against this. All in all, the typical skirts, sweaters, jumpers, blouses and flat shoes seem to prevail as classroom garb.

Perhaps the "My Fair Lady" look will wend its way into date dresses, 'cuz those empire lines look wonderful on the college-age young lady. Puffy net ball gowns are giving way to the sleeker look, with floating back panels adding that touch of sophistication that every woman loves.

Dormitory Outfit

Representative of dormitory wear is the outfit modeled by Martha Whaling. Comfortable Bermudas and knee socks lend themselves nicely to studying and other campus activities. Martha, daughter of the C. W. Whalings of North Glenhurst drive, has transferred from Hilldale to the University of Michigan this year, where she'll be a junior, majoring in history. She feels the clothes problem becomes less complicated each year, as you learn to anticipate what events to plan at school.

Formal Attire

Sanja Hanson tried on her new pale blue satin cocktail length formal for our photographer. It'll be packed carefully in her suitcase when she leaves Tuesday for her sophomore year at Purdue university, where there's a fantastic ratio of "five men to every gal!" WOW!! The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Hanson of Hamilton road in Bloomfield township, she thinks this year is more exciting than her freshman year ... she's not so scared.

Classroom Garb

Bidding a fond farewell to her bathing suit as she stows it away until next summer is Sharon Hodgson, daughter of the James Hodgsons of Northlawn Blvd. The suit served as daytime attire for the past few months when she was on duty as a life guard at Oakland Hills country club ... now she's trading it for the type of clothes she's pictured in here ... plaid skirt with short sleeved cardigan sweater trimmed in matching plaid. Hoping to become an airline stewardess, she'll start a two-year course in airline traffic at Stephens college, Columbia, Mo.

Ann Willett Off for Stephens

Ann Willett was home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. Howard Willett, Jr., of Pilgrim street, for just 10 days, and then was off again Monday, headed for her freshman year at Stephens.

She spent the summer at Waquetonsing, living with nine other girls in a cottage near a resort hotel. They all managed to get in lots of swimming and water skiing between breakfasts, lunches and dinners, when they "waitressed" at the hotel.

Freshmen at Missouri College

Also starting their freshman year at Stephens will be Maureen E. Garwood, daughter of the Maurice Garwoods of Williamsburg road, Erin C. Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William G. Hayes of Westwood avenue, Marjorie Ann Oserson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Allen R. Oserson of Buckingham street, Patricia D. Sheldon, daughter of the junior Fredrick E. Sheldons of Burning Bush and Penelope Todd, who parents are Mr. and Mrs. Ashby G. Todd of Greenwood street.

Smith Gals Entertain Fathers

Orchard Lake country club was the scene of a gala dinner last night when about 25 Smith college gals from this and the Grosse Pointe area entertained their fathers for the evening. Also among the honorees were the incoming freshmen and their dads. The gay mood continued after the banquet as they all traveled over to Patty Hummel's home on Devon lane for a party.

Embarking on their first year at Smith will be Debby Moore of Lahser road and Annette Hammond of Barden road, Bloomfield Hills. Margaret McCall of Lone Pine Hill, Barbara Aikens of Wing Lake road, Patty Hummel and Fran Kyes of Cranbrook road will be juniors.

Going back for their last year at the eastern college are Pam Morgan of North Woodward and Sue Harley of Brookwood court.

News of Engagement Told By Booths at Buffet Supper

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Scripps Booth announce the engagement of their daughter, Melinda Farr, to Jon Holmberg Henrikson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry E. Henrikson of Delray Beach, Fla., formerly of Middletown, Conn.

Announcement of the engagement was made at a buffet supper held at "Thornes," the Bloomfield Hills home of Mr. and Mrs. Booth. Present were members of the family and close friends who met the Booths' houseguest, their future son-in-law.

Melinda, a graduate of Kingswood school Cranbrook, is at present attending Stetson university in Deland, Fla., where she is a member of Pi Beta Phi. Jon attends the same university and is affiliated with Pi Kappa Alpha.

No date has been set for the wedding.
