Breakfast Cocktails Begin Brunch Honoring Arlunds

Thirty guests gathered at the home of the William Franks of Beech road for a patio brunch recently. The honored guests were Mr. and Mrs. William Arlund of Square Lake road, who have just returned home from a three months European trip.

Breakfast cocktails were served before brunch. There were bright red and white checked tablecloths on the patio tables, and the brunch consisted of an assortment of sausages, Canadian bacon, chicken livers, green potatoes, cheese souffles and coffee cakes.

Among the out of town guests were Mrs. Alvin Baker of Holly wood, Fla., and Mr. and Mrs. Willis Sargent and Mrs. Virginia Stroud of East Lansing, Mich.

A bridge-luncheon was hosted recently by Mrs. William Franks of Beech road, in honor of Ann Boyle of Boston, Mass. Among the twelve guests attending were Mrs. Eugene Nichols of Watley road, sister of Miss Boyle.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Cowgill and their son, Bill, of Manor road, are now enjoying five days at the Greentree hotel in White Sulphur Springs, West Va. Their trip was by train.

Greg Cowman, age 8, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thayer Cowman, Lanagan drive, won a blue ribbon in the annual Labor Day swimming championship races held at Red Run Golf club. He came in first in the 25 meter free-style heat for boys 7 thru 9 years of age. His time 20.2 seconds.

New neighbors in Thornwood are the Donald Smith family of Oakhill drive, formerly of Detroit. Their three children are, David, 22, a medical student at U. of M., Ross, 20, a junior at U. of M., majoring in architecture, Jeanie, 12, attending Derby Jr. High. The boys and their father are members of Phi Gamma Delta. Mrs. Smith's sorority is Delta Gamma.

Mr. Smith is a broker with the firm of Alexander Sibley, Detroit. The family all enjoy water and snow skiing.

David and Ross are presently "charming it" at their cottage on an island in Georgian Bay.

The Don Ennis family are enjoying their new home on Thedford road in Kentmore subdivision. Their move was from Utica, Mich. Mr. Ennis is in the plumbing and heating business with his father. The Ennis children, Don, 16, Janet, 13, Maxine, 12, Susan, 4, all belong to the Rochester Flying club. They build and fly their own models.

The family have just returned from Houghton lake where they had a cottage over the holiday weekend.

Newcomers to Haddington road are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McCulloch and their 19-month-old daughter, Janet. Also living with them is Mr. Herbert Mortenson, Mrs. McCulloch's father. They previously lived in Detroit. Mr. McCulloch is a buyer in the Lincoln division, Ford Motor car company, and is a Pi Kappa Phi.
