

Ascension Church Asks Mrs. Krupp To Direct Music

Mrs. Norma Krupp, of Royal Oak, has accepted the long vacant position of director of music at Ascension Lutheran church, beginning regular services at the church last Sunday.

A graduate of the school of music at the University of Michigan, Mrs. Krupp has served as organist at the Lutheran chapel on the Ann Arbor campus, taught music at Nazareth Lutheran church, Detroit, and was organist at Redeemer Lutheran church, Grand Rapids. Mrs. Krupp, who auditioned at services in Ascension Lutheran church during the summer, has organized an adult choir, currently meeting on Thursday evenings, and has stimulated the interest of the youth to form a children's choir which meets after school on Thursdays.

The new music director plans to rehearse the choir for a concert in December in addition to preparing them for service in the worship of the church. She also tentatively plans to offer an organ recital in October.

Credit for acquiring the services of Mrs. Krupp goes to Church of the Ascension's music committee, Lee Anderson, chairman; Mrs. W. Blide and Mrs. M. Rygh.

Church News Deadline is 5 p.m. on Thursdays.

Presbyterians Begin Fall Series Of Assn. Meetings

Several groups of the First Presbyterian Church Women's Association will begin their fall series of meetings next week. Trowbridge Guild will meet for lunch at the church on Tuesday. Susan Trowbridge Guild will follow the luncheon with a program by Mrs. W. S. Purvis, who will use dolls she has dressed to represent various Biblical characters as the feature of her talk.

Missionary "A" will meet at the church at 2 p.m. Wednesday. Mrs. Homer Johnson of Detroit, elder of the Woodward Avenue Presbyterian church, program chairman of the Detroit Presbytery, and the only woman member of the nominating committee of the General Assembly, will be guest speaker. Guests will be welcome at this meeting.

Missionary "B" will meet on Wednesday at 12:30 for pot luck luncheon. Mrs. E. W. Seaholm of Fairway drive will be in charge. "The Youth in Our Church," will be the subject of the afternoon talk by the Rev. Robert W. Gibson.
