former next-door neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Hutchison, are now living until their prospective return during the latter part of the year.

Mr. Quailman also visited in Switzerland but particularly enjoyed his visit in London where he was entertained by Englishmen who had been his former guests in America.

Mr. Quailman felt particularly fortunate in having these friends to see many places which would have been difficult for a stranger to find and visit in so few days as he had in the city.

The Glenn Freemans of Sylvan had a busy summer. After vacation, Mr. Freeman attended a three-week course given at Rutgers university in New Brunswick, N. Y. The course covered sales management and marketing. Helen Freeman drove to New Jersey the latter part of her husband's stay and they visited with former year-ago neighbors and friends in New Jersey.

Over Labor Day the Freemans were hosts to their Mumbo dance group at a polka-cook-out. This is the first time the group has been together since last spring.
