LeGrand Terrys Entertain House Guest from Houston

It's a long trip by car from Houston, Texas to Birmingham, as Mrs. M. D. Drummond of Houston can attest to since her arrival at the home of her niece, Mrs. LeGrand Terry, of Brooklawn, Troyton Manor.

The Terrys plan to have Mrs. Drummond as their houseguest for approximately two months. Last weekend, Mrs. Drummond flew to New York for a short visit and returned to the Terry home yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Tobias, Jr., of Graefield road announce the arrival of their first child, Jerome David. The baby weighed exactly seven pounds at birth and made his first appearance at Harper hospital Aug. 18.

Newcomers to this area are Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Gobeke, now occupying their new home on Wrenwood. They moved here from Birmingham blvd. and are originally from Bay City.

They have a daughter, Janie, 13, who is quite a swimming enthusiast. She completed her Junior Life saving course at camp this summer, and it was for her benefit and enjoyment that the Gobeke's installed a swimming pool prior to moving into their new home.

Mr. Gobeke attended Michigan State University and is associated with General Motors. Besides their main hobby of swimming, Mr. and Mrs. Gobeke are bridge players.

There has been quite a bit of bustling about and excitement at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Welch, of Brooklawn, Troyton Manor, since Mrs. Welch returned home from St. Joseph's hospital with not one, but two baby brothers for sisters Sarah, 1½ and Bettay, 2½ years old.

The twins were born Aug. 31 and are Robert Garvin, 5 lbs., 10 oz., and William Richardson, 5 lbs., 9 oz.

Another new arrival in Troyton recently was Daniel Edward, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Dukes, 1870 Witherbee road. He was born Aug. 20 at St. Joseph hospital. He is the fifth member of the family to have a name beginning with "D". The other children are David, Dee, Debra and Douglas.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. Robert Distler, 881 Graefield, entertained his parents, the S. J. Distlers, who drove here from their home in Floral Park, N. Y. One of the highlights of their visit was an evening spent viewing the new Cinema now showing in Detroit. The senior Distlers returned home on Tuesday.

Nancy Joann Schulte, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Schulte of Witherbee road, was christened Sunday, Sept. 9 at Holy Name church. Godparents are Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Griffin of Royal Oak.

After the ceremony, the Schultes entertained at their home for approximately 20 guests. Among those present were the baby's great-grandparents, who came from their home in Howell, for the event.

Mrs. James Adams entertained in her Graefield road home for two tables of bridge Monday evening. Before any bidding was begun, dessert and coffee were served.

Attending from this area were Mrs. Howard Ross, Mrs. Thomas Schulte, Mrs. Robert Distler, and Mrs. G. P. Barker, of the Terrys. Others were Mrs. Martin Swift, Mrs. Robert Friesner, and Mrs. Ruth Clark, all from the Birmingham area.

Taking advantage of one of the few remaining nice days of summer, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Morze, Graefield road, and children, Minta, Craig, Brian and Mark went sailing on Lake St. Clair aboard the "El Rebelde," a 42-ft. ketch rig owned by their friends, Mr. and Mrs. John Booth of Birmingham and Palm Beach, Fla.

Have You Met . . .

The new residents on Wimbulton? They are Mr. and Mrs. Douglas B. Kitterman, who, with their children, David, 12, Barbara, 9, Anne, 6, and Kathryn, 1, moved to Birmingham last month from Sao Paulo, Brazil. Mr. Kitterman is employed by the international division of Ford Motor Co. Golfing and fishing are his hobbies.

MRS. LEONARD W. BOBIER

Bobier-Neilson Marriage Solemnized by Candlelight

Gowned in a lovely creation of white chantilly lace, Nancy Jo Neilson walked down the aisle of St. Paul Lutheran church in Farmington Saturday evening to become the bride of Leonard William Bobier, son of Mr. and Mrs. William L. Bobier of Livonia. Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Neilson of Waycross road, Southfield township.

Rev. Walter Rutkowski solemnized the double-ring rites in the presence of 250 guests.

DESIGNED on princess lines with short sleeves and a scooped neckline, the bridal gown featured a sash of white Italian taffeta starting midway down the front of the skirt and encircling it, dipping to the floor in back, terminating in a large bow. From the sash to the hem was a bouffant skirt of tulle extending into a train.

Sequins and seed pearls trimmed the chantilly lace crown securing the bride's illusion veil. She carried a basket of assorted chrysanthemums centered with a white orchid.

Nancy was preceded down the aisle by her maid of honor, Patricia Wendt, bridesmaid, Mrs. Joann Benjamin, Gail Clark and Mrs. Janice Prichard, and junior bridesmaid, Dianne Johns.

THEY WERE identically frocked in white nylon gowns styled on princess lines with shirred bodices. Completing their costumes were picture hats and baskets of white chrysanthemums with a touch of yellow spider mums.

Bob Benjamin, Gerald John and Roy Stanoff ushered guests. Bruce Kime was best man.

Mrs. Neilson wore a gown fashioned of pale blue silk lace and organza and Mrs. Bobier was gown in pale pink lace.

After a buffet dinner reception at the Detroit Yacht club, the newlyweds left for a honeymoon at Niagara Falls. They will make their home in Louisville, Ky., where the groom is employed by Reynolds Metals Co.
