

Walnut Lake Area Frank Grady's Honor Son At Two Open House Events

The Frank Grady of East Dartmoor road returned from a trip to Chicago in time to greet son Frank Grady, S. J., home for the first time in five years. Frank is studying for the Jesuit priesthood at West Baden, Ind.

In honor of his visit home, the Grady family gave two large open houses. Last Tuesday Mrs. Grady was hostess for a luncheon meeting of the Garden Study club of North Roadside Park with which she is second for all the relatives.

affiliated. Members brought in their flower arrangements for the afternoon's judging, done by a Grosse Pointe garden member.

The Alex S. Keller family of Eastmoor road have added a member to their family since moving into the Braes of Bloomfield, young David T. Keller. This makes two boys in the family, as the baby and his brother Tommy, 6, balance the two girls, Sandra, 10, and Nancy, 8.

Residents of Bloomfield Farms are still in the mood for the West Bloomfield township hall on Orchard Lake road, for the purpose of getting acquainted and starting an association.

Time of the meeting is 8:30 p.m. All occupants are asked to keep this date open and plan to be present for a share in the organization of the subdivision.

A note in the mail from Chicago Heights, Ill., notifies us of the arrival of Daniel Bruce in the household of the Cass Brownings, Daniel born Sept. 2, weighed in at 8 lbs. 9 oz.

Both sets of grandparents, the Bernard Brownings of Sunnyside drive, and the John Belts of Putnam drive, are Walnut Lake residents, as were the Cass Brownings for a number of years.

COLLEGE BOUND
The Corradi, of South Clunbury road, said goodbye to daughter Jo Ann at Michigan State university last Sunday, where they left her encoined in her quarters in Snyder Hall.

This week is Welcome Week at State for incoming freshmen, and Jo Ann was looking forward to the round of orientation activities. Her summer was spent as a counselor at Holiday House on Pine Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Corradi have just returned from a trip to New York city, where Corradi attended the Oldsmobile dealers convention. They managed to find time while there to take in a few Broadway shows.

Janis DeMann has left home to attend Lincoln Junior college at Lincoln, Ill. Her absence is being felt in the DeMann household on South Clunbury road, where her mother is looking forward to a flying visit from Janis in October.

Bill Rice was accompanied by his parents, the Reginald Rices of East Dartmoor road, when he moved his baggage and belongings to Purdue university to take up residence for his freshman year there.

LATHRUP—Appointment of relief sewer engineers will await a full council hearing, expected when Councilman Frederick O. Johnson returns in October after a month's vacation.

Community Church Women Open Season With Luncheon-Hat Show

A luncheon designed to go to your head with the assistance of a Northland restaurant will open the social season at Community Church Oct. 4 at 12:30.

Circle two of the Women's Association will present the luncheon and hat show headed by Mrs. Thomas Myers, circle chairman in Fellowship hall.

Mrs. Melvin Humphrey and Mrs. Harold Nash will be co-chairmen of the luncheon, with Mrs. Byron Holmes and Mrs. William Arveson in charge of the dining room.

Circle members will model the bonnets. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Paul Nash, ticket chairman, or from chairmen of the various circles.

Elaine Nash, daughter of the Paul Nashes of Goldensgate found an excellent position to ease the sting of starting back to school: one application of "My Fair Lady" followed by a dose of "No Time for Sergeants."

Accompanied by Beverly Copeland, Elaine flew to New York for a week of shows and shopping, returning barely in time to start her freshman year at the University of Michigan.

"Golfing was wonderful, but too

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Mattern of east California drive who are celebrating their 40th wedding anniversary this month.

Ex-councilman Tom Reed reminded us at council meeting Monday evening of his and Mrs. Reed's 40th wedding anniversary last month.

Ed Haller of Eldorado drive leaned forward to whisper that he and Mrs. Haller had just passed their 48th year mark this summer. Wonder if that sets a sort of (dare we say it) endurance mark for Lathrup?

Leaders of Lathrup's 16 girl scout troops will meet Sept. 24 at the home of Mrs. W. J. Owen at 1 p.m. Following tea, all scout business preliminary to the opening of the girl scout year will be discussed. Troop meetings will start Oct. 1.

The Lathrup Women's bowling league started with a flourish Tuesday at the Ritz Recreation. Mrs. Everett Nelson, president, has issued an invitation to Lathrup residents, particularly the many new arrivals, to join the League. Other officers are Mrs. Philip Urdig, president, Mrs. Merton Graves, inc. secretary, and Mrs. Bernard Yost, treasurer.

The Charles E. Kaufmanns, Sr., of Ft. Lauderdale have arrived for several weeks visit with the junior Kaufmanns of Goldensgate. They will make several trips into Canada, particularly to the Thunder Bay region.

John Davis Family Reunion Celebrated Three Events

Oak Willows, the name recently chosen for the John Davis home on Wing Lake road was the scene of great activity Saturday. A family reunion attended by 25 relatives celebrated not only one but three occasions.

It was the birthday of Mrs. Thomas C. McDowell, mother of Mrs. Davis and 10th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Davis. Mrs. Ralph Villeneuve, sister of Mr. Davis and her husband, the last guests to arrive, caused great excitement when they announced their recent marriage to the family. This, even though it had not been planned, made the gathering a triple celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wise of home was Grand Rapids. Mr. Richter is manager for the Michigan-Ohio division of the Hapoint appliance sales company. Their three children are W. J. Richter junior, Alden J. and Janet Ann. Their common interests are golf and yachting.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Kirk of West Maple had his parents, the George Kirk of St. Louis, Mo., as their guests for two weeks. Cousins of Mrs. Kirk also visited them for a week recently.

"Back to school" means several days of planning for Mrs. Robin Norton, Wing Lake road. Three of her children left within three days for three different destinations. Friday, Timothy flew to Arizona where he attends a ranch school; Cliequet returned to U. M. Sunday, and Michael returned to his studies at Taft school, Connecticut, Monday.

Cliequet was in New York last week investigating the possibility of securing a position in Mexico upon completion of her college education in February. She spent an interesting summer of study in Mexico and is anxious to return.

Mrs. Ian Wilson, Franklin road, has resumed her class in pottery arts. She has eight students who meet at her home on Monday evenings.

The R. C. Burkhardt, Meadow Lake road entertained 20 guests at a dinner party at their home Saturday evening.

Congratulations are in order for

Bloomfield Newcomers Introduced

BLOOMFIELD—The Charles B. Breedlove moved into their new home on Mohawk court in the spring from their former Detroit home. However, they spent the summer in Cambridge, Mass. where Mr. Breedlove was taking advanced graduate work at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Mr. and Mrs. Breedlove were accompanied during their stay in the east by daughter Susan, 13, and son David, 10. The family took time to do a lot of sightseeing in historic Boston and environs.

Breedlove is with the Detroit board of education, at Cody high school. The couple belong to the Metropolitan Detroit Science club and other professional organizations. Their chief hobby is photography.

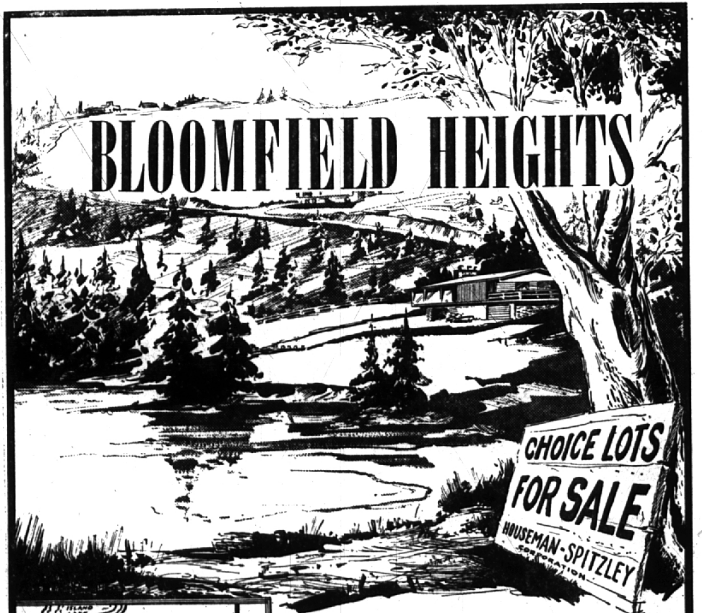

THE WALTER MEADS moved to their West Maple road home from Cleveland, Ohio. Children in the family are Kenneth, 12, in the second grade at Walnut Lake school, and Katherine, 10.

Previous to moving, both parents were active in church work, and have associated themselves here with Kirk in the Hills church. Mr. Meads is with the J. Walter Thompson advertising agency. He enjoys golfing and photography. Mrs. Meads is also a golf enthusiast, dabbles in ceramics, and began bowling this week as a member of the Newcomers club. Kenneth and Katherine accompanied their mother on a visit to Tyler, Minn. this summer to visit their grandparents and the family spent many weekends together at Maceday lake near Waterford.
