Nancy Claire Bergdahl

Nancy Bergdahl Engaged To Marry

At a family dinner party Friday evening at Pine Lake country club, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Andrew Bergdahl of 712 Fairfax announced the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Claire, to Walter Neil Robertson of Chicago.

Nancy is a graduate of Kingswood school, Cranbrook, and the University of Michigan, where she was affiliated with Collegiate Sorority. Her fiancé, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Robertson of Huntington Woods, is also a U of M graduate. His fraternity is Chi Phi.

They plan a Nov. 3 wedding at Martha Mary chapel in Greenfield Village.

Mintlings Visit Sons in Maryland

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mintling, 887 Haynes, have returned from a three-week visit in Maryland. They were guests in the home of their son and his wife, the Harold Mintlings of Chase, Md.

While there, they were joined by two other sons, Charles, who lives in Baltimore, and Edward, who came up from Anniston, Ala. A new addition to the Mintling's home was the product of their get-together, as all pitched in on the family project, laughingly calling themselves the "Mintling construction company."

Organ Society Meet

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Beresford of Goodhue road, Bloomfield Hills, will open their home to the Hammond Organ society of Birmingham for a membership participation meeting Wednesday at 7 p.m. Mr. and Mrs. Floyd W. Bunt will assist the hosts.

"Get Acquainted" Meetings Planned At Barnum School

Students at Barnum junior high school are sending letters to their parents inviting them to "Get Acquainted" meetings at the school. The first one is scheduled tonight for the seventh grade parents and the evenings of Oct. 4 and Oct. 11 have been set aside for the eighth and ninth grade parents, respectively.

Beginning at 8 p.m., the meetings will depart from past procedure in that parents will first gather in their child's home room to meet other parents and the teacher. They then will convene generally in the auditorium where the film "A Day at Barnum" is to be shown. The yearly calendar and program will be distributed and the PTA membership drive conducted. Barnum PTA depends for all its funds upon membership fees and direct contributions.

THE PTA officers have appointed the following committee chairmen for the year: ways and means, Mrs. R. M. Bruce; room mothers, Mrs. Joseph Cook II; hospitality, Mrs. Jeanette Grant and Mrs. James Warner; publicity, Mrs. F. N. Mosher; health, Mrs. A. E. Carlson; recreation, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bailey; and safety, G. M. Emery. Mrs. George Marin and Mrs. R. B. Bender are the council delegates.

Officers are president, A. N. Stuart; father vice-president, M. J. Brokaw; mother vice-president, Mrs. John Zimmerman; teacher vice-president, Muriel Brusse and Marilyn Smiley; secretary, Mrs. Frank Reynolds; and treasurer, Mrs. Theodore Olson.

District Meeting For Garden Clubs

Members of 41 clubs, including Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills, are expected to register for the District 1 meeting of the Federated Garden Clubs of Michigan. Pleasant Ridge Garden club will host the group Oct. 2 in the Hillside rooms of Devon Gables. Registration will begin at 9 a.m. and a coffee hour will precede the business meeting at 10 a.m. at which Mrs. A. George Coulton, president of the district will preside.

Mrs. Walter D. Byrd, president of the hostess club, will be speaker for the day and has chosen "Captured Beauty, the Art of Drying and Arranging Flowers" as her subject. Following luncheon, Mary Bartlett, harpist, will give a short musical program.

Organizational Meet for Packer Alumnae Tonight

The organization of an Alumnae group for Packer Institute of Brooklyn, N. Y., is in progress. One of the first Women's schools in the city of New York, it was founded in 1845.

Mrs. John W. Jickling will open her home at 600 Shearwater, Birmingham, for a meeting at 8 o'clock this evening. Attending from Birmingham, along with those from Grosse Pointe and Detroit, will be Dr. Dorothy Goerner, Mrs. John Erickson, Mrs. James Flack, Mrs. John Forsberg, Mrs. Erling Landanes and Mrs. Arthur Underwood.

Committees Named for Town Hall

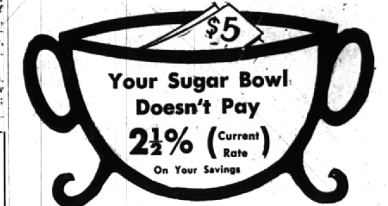

Just announced for the new season are committees for Birmingham Town Hall.

Serving on the programs will be Mrs. Edward Codner, Mrs. Ben Ragland, Mrs. Norville Hubbard, Mrs. George Cary and Mrs. George Sears. Handling the publicity will be Mrs. Ford Pearson, Mrs. Edward Codner, Mrs. S. L. Willis and Mrs. Samuel Trade. In charge of the stage will be Mrs. Paul Reed, Mrs. Arthur Chantler, Mrs. Norman James, Mrs. Edward Dero, Mrs. Clyde Hagerman and Mrs. Ralph Bachus.

The list continues with Mrs. Ralph Hunt, Mrs. Charles Renfrew and Mrs. Harry Coen, hospitality;

Mrs. W. P. Hickman, Mrs. W. S. Wilson, Jane Smith and Hammond Baker; ushers; Mrs. Gordon Heas and Mrs. Morris Halsted luncheon hostesses;

Others include the luncheon committee, Mrs. H. C. Kenedy, Mrs. Thomas LeMessurier and Mrs. John Burke.
