

Lathrup Village Lathrup Women Invited To Woman's Club Meeting

Lathrup Woman's Club will get their fall season under way Monday, Oct. 1 with Rev. Werner Kuntz, executive director of the Board of World Relief, as guest speaker.

Dr. Kuntz, a graduate of St. Louis Lutheran Seminary, served various pastorate in the middle west. He returned last June from a six months world-tour of 20 countries. He was engaged in establishing specific needs in various areas, setting up unbiased agencies to distribute relief and establishing self-help centers.

This first meeting of the year will be guest day, and all Lathrup residents are invited to attend. Presiding over her first meeting will be the new president, Mrs. Elmer Craig, with the following officers: Mrs. James Wichert, vice president, Mrs. Frederick Byington, recording secretary, Mrs. Alf Meyer, corresponding secretary, and Mrs. Alex Billeston, treasurer.

Tea committee chairman is Mrs. Bernard Yost, assisted by Mrs. Martin Harwell, Mrs. Earl Hosen-tail and whole chicken brought from home.

Lathrup Church Groups Active This Week, Section 4, Page 6

Visiting the Walker Tavern museum, the girls were delighted to find that they could handle and investigate the pioneer guns, clothing and documents.

The girls held Sunday devotions by the lake, and made a visit to the outdoor shrine head stations of the cross. Afternoon marked departure time for the campers. Pat Pustenberg, Mary Lou Brenner, Carol Graveline, Linda Peterson, Pat Cattell, Linda Brethen and Mrs. Boyd.

Nancy Carnegie flew back to London and ballet study with Sadler's Wells Tuesday with pleasant memories of a month's preference trip in the U.S. and their parents, the Andes Carnegies of Glenwood, with their house-guest, Miss Tekla Steple, left in August for a stay at the Quarter Circle V-Bar ranch at Phoenix, Ariz.

Nancy went on to Los Angeles where she was a guest of the Boyd, and into the hands of daughter, Christie, and visited the movie studios and Disneyland. Folia visited friends in San Marino.

Upon the girls' return from California, the family headed for Denver and a visit with son, Billy, who attends the U.S. Air Academy. A stay with friends in Chicago, and the Carnegies headed for home and preparations for Nancy's ocean-hop.

An Autumn dessert card party will be held in St. Bede's social hall Wednesday, Oct. 10, at 12:30 p.m. Members of St. Mary's guild, sponsors of the party, extend a cordial invitation to all the women of the surrounding community and their friends to join them.

Virginia Cole MA 6-5585
Wing Lake Farms, Chalmers Lake, Sodom Lake

Wing Lake Third Addition to Wing Lake School Dedicated at PTO Opening Meeting

Opening meeting of the Wing Lake Parent Teachers Organization Sept. 20, was highlighted with the dedication of the school's third new early this year and completed.

Merrill O. Bates, Bloomfield school board president, and school superintendent, Eugene Johnson, were on the dedication program. Two vocal numbers were sung by Judy Gougeon, with piano accompaniment by Mary Ellen Howard, both Bloomfield high school students.

Preceding the dedication and business meeting at which Mrs. Geneva Forslund, school principal introduced new teachers, parents visited their children's classrooms.

Mrs. Elma Nurne, Carey lane, entertained Friday at a desert-coffee for her two new neighbors, Mrs. Clinton McDonald and Mrs. Joseph West.

Mrs. Nurne, who is doing volunteer work with children at Pontiac State hospital, will assist as teacher this winter for boys, 7-14, ice skates are badly needed for the children at the hospital, Mrs. Nurne reported, and would appreciate the donation of ice skates the family has outgrown.

The Latin-American dance group starts its third season this Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Roberts, Carey lane. This group of several couples meets every other week at members' homes.

Mrs. Richard Peters, Mrs. Jack Townsend, Mrs. Stanley Wilson and Mrs. Leonard Orr have formed an afternoon bridge group, meeting for lunch and bridge every Wednesday. Yesterday they met at the home of Mrs. Peters.

Mrs. Edward G. O'Neil, Wing Lake road, and her grand-daughter, Edna Witherspoon of Dakota circle, flew to New York last week. They visited friends, attended the Broadway hit, "Bus Stop" and saw the Radio City show.

First meeting of the Wing Lake branch of the WNGF association will be at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robinson next Monday at 1 p.m. Mrs. Ralph Darling will be co-hostess.

Mrs. James I. Tucker, Wing Lake road, entertained 25 women of the northwest Kiwanis club Saturday. Luncheon was held at Devon Gables followed by bridge at Mrs. Tucker's Chalmers lake home.

WESTWOOD MANOR
Residents in the fast-growing subdivision, Westwood Manor, have held two meetings to organize an incorporated association, and a third meeting will be at the R. L. Wibels home on Westwood lane, this week.

The Wibels, moving from Birmingham last month have three children, Ricky, Jr., 8, 10, and Kristie, 3 months. Beginning Oct. 1, Wibel will be associated with Reynolds Aluminum.

In July, Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Boswell moved from Detroit to their new home on Westwood court. They have three boys, Robert, 12, Jimmy, 10 and John, 3. Boswell is chief engineer, forge and foundry division of Chrysler. He is a member of the Society of Automotive Engineers and the American Society for Metals.

July was also the moving date for Mr. and Mrs. Fred T. Simanick and daughter Diane, 9, of Westwood lane, formerly of Birmingham. Simanick is chief five engineer with Stellar Engineering, Detroit. He is active in the Henry Ford trade school association.

The Harry B. Price family on Westwood lane, formerly lived in Beverly Hills. Their children are Mickey, 8, and Judy, 5. Price, a sales engineer with Walker Supply Mfg. Co., is a member of Beta Theta Pi and Ohio university alumni association.

Carey lane newcomers are Mr. David, 11, Howard, 8, and Nancy, 11, who moved to their new home Sept. 11 from Oak Hills. Nancy went in the tax section of Gen-

West Beverly Competition Keen as Women Bowlers Start Season Meets

Competition was keen at the bowling lanes when members of the West Beverly Hills league met for a second session and the race was on when team two captained by Lil Racine established a high series of 1994.

In second place was Louise Mar-grove's team with 19-6 and in third place, Virginia Lowery's team right with 18-8. Team one also racked up high game score with a 689, followed by team eight with a 676 and team two with a 670.

For individual high series, so far, Lil Racine rolled a 467 to a close 606 made by Gertrude Krompa. Yvonne Anger was in third place with a 452.

Consistent in her capture of honors for the day, Mrs. Racine rolled an individual high game of 186 with Mary Vandekerck in second place with 177 and Mrs. Krompa in third place with 172.

Elva Beukema, league secretary, announces that though the league's teams are full at the present time, she will be happy to accept names for the substitute list with the possibility of filling any future team openings.

Honoring her sister, Rosemary, Mini Taormina of Devonshire entertained 45 guests for a dinner and miscellaneous shower at Devon Gables last week. Places at the table were marked with favors of small white mums, decorated parasols and the table was centered with an arrangement of pink roses and white mums.

Rosemary, who will be a Nov. 3 bride at the Birmingham Lutheran church, was attractively gowned for the event in a champagne lace sheath and wore a corsage of white carnations, a gift from her fiancé, Richard Griffith of Beverly road.

Toy Party Given By Auxiliary, Dunham-Ray Post

SOUTHFIELD — Dunham-Ray Post 9955 auxiliary held a toy party last week for members and friends at Nelson Realty, 10 Mile and Southfield, the auxiliary's meeting place.

Games were played with prizes going to Mrs. Jesse Richter, Mrs. Doreen Sturdevan, Mrs. J. M. Richards, Mrs. Ellen Richards and Mrs. Joseph Gross.

A tall centerpiece of chrysanthemums, zinnias, straw flowers, wheat and gourds made by Mrs. James Travis, centered the refreshment table. Mrs. Paul Soucheak was in charge of party arrangements.

New Home Burns

BLOOMFIELD — A new home under construction on Westwood Court burned Monday afternoon. Damage was not estimated. The fire was started by a plumber working with a torch. Only the studding, rafters and roof sheathing were completed at the time of the fire.

GOW'S LITTLE ACRE

Corner Square Lake Rd. & Livernois
• Good Old-Fashioned Buckets and Sugar Pails that you can decorate yourself
• Dozens of small pitchers in glass and pottery

Just about now your Christmas cards should be haunting you. Come see ours while it's still early.

MUberry 9-1035 Troy, Michigan

30-DAY FREE HOME TRIAL

Even dried egg yolks vanish in this JAMES dishwasher

* No Installation!
* No Hand Pre-Rinsing!
* Holds More Dishes!

SPECIAL OFFER — DELUXE JAMES DISHWASHER

Reg. $289.95 $219.95
NOW AT MILKS—

This Special Price Includes A
FREE MAPLE CUTTING BOARD
THAT FITS TOP OF DISHWASHER

MI 6-1300

MILKS APPLIANCES

Birmingham's Largest Appliance Store
Serving You For Over 26 Years
1493 S. WOODWARD (near 14 Mile)
Open Even Till 8 • MI 6-1300

At a party in celebration of his birthday, A. W. Chekaway of Devonshire was the surprised honor guest. A small group met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Humeney of Norchester for cocktails and then adjourned to Mr. Chekaway's home where he was greeted by an assemblage of guests from Detroit and Toledo.

Honoring Ruth Ann Finmeren and Jack Forgy of Detroit whose wedding at the Gen church will be on Oct. 13 event, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gariepy of Warwick entertained at a bar shower and buffet supper on Saturday night. Mrs. Gariepy, who will be an attendant at the wedding, used an autumn motif in her appointments for the party.

Because of an increased interest in scouting, a geographic division for Troop B-24 has become necessary. John Tomes of Kiaros, membership chairman, announces that a boy, 8 through 11 years old, living west of Southfield, and interested in scouting, may call him for information. Troop chairman is Bill King.

House Organs ----?

YES... WE PRINT MORE PUBLICATIONS THAN ANY PRINTER IN MICHIGAN

Three Detroit Salesmen... TR 5-2629... Plant MI 6-2000

The AVERILL PRESS INC. of Birmingham
A COMPLETE PRINTING SERVICE—FROM TYPESETTING TO MAILING

FORMERLY THE BIRMINGHAM ECENTRIC PRINTING DEPARTMENT

ROOM TO LIVE

Every room in this COMFORTABLE ranch home is tremendous. The living room is 16 x 21 with a seven foot LEDGEROCK fireplace and one complete wall of "furniture finished" bookcases. 3 large bedrooms, master (13x16), and a beautiful tile bath. Carpeting and drapes included. Tops in LOCATION AND LIVABILITY. See it — You'll LOVE it. $19,300.00.

CHAMBERLAIN

420 S. WOODWARD BIRMINGHAM, MICH. REALTORS MI 6-4500 JO 6-1527

Bloomfield Hills Homesites and Lakefront Properties —

Many in the Bloomfield Hills (Vaughn) School District

Here in the exclusive Bloomfield Hills District are six outstanding suburban sites from the Houseman-Spitzley Corporation, land developers since 1914.

Visit any one of the six today... you'll find huge lots on high and dry rolling land with majestic trees to provide summer shade. Close to Kirk-in-the-Hills Church, golf courses and recreational facilities. Wonderful shopping; just moments from Birmingham, minutes from Northland. Excellent building restrictions, fine neighboring homes and low township taxes.

Some of the developments have homes for sale, or if you prefer you may take advantage of our planning and building service. Stop in at our office today or phone for further information on prices and terms.

NOW READY FOR OCCUPANCY
Homes from $22,000 to $46,000

BLOOMFIELD HILLS OFFICE, at Long Lake Road and Telegraph Road opposite Devon Gables.
Phone: MIDWEST 4-7422 FEDERAL 8-1331

HOUSEMAN-SPITZLEY CORPORATION
406 WASHINGTON BLVD. BLDG., DETROIT 26, WO. 3-4816

