

Mrs. Ralph Woodburn Honors Parents on 50th Anniversary

FRANKLIN—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur W. Keppler, who observed their fiftieth wedding anniversary yesterday, were guests of honor at a reception for more than 100 guests, given by their daughter, Mrs. Ralph Woodburn, at her home on Telegraph road, Franklin, Sunday afternoon, Sept. 16.

The golden motif was carried out in the flower arrangement of mums, gladioli and broadleaf tea leaves which composed the centerpiece for the tea table. Mrs. Keppler was presented a golden orchid, and Mr. Keppler's boutonniere had been gilded for the occasion. Bouquets of golden mums and tea roses, remembrances from their many friends in Detroit, Grosse Pointe and Birmingham, adorned the living room.

MR. KEPPLER was with the Rayl Co., Detroit, for 48 years prior to his retirement last year. Mr. and Mrs. Keppler, members of the Bethel Baptist church since childhood, are both 73 years of age. They have eight grandchildren, including Sharon and Jim Woodburn.

Preceding the tea, a dinner was held at Devon Gables for out of town members of the family, which included their children Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Graf of Algonac and Mrs. Leonard W. Keppler of Maitland, Fla.; also their nieces and nephews Mr. and Mrs. Dell C. Whitmore of Willoughby, Ohio; Mrs. Norma W. Butler of Cleveland; and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wrobel with their son Jack of Rocky River, Ohio.

Winter Recreation Basketball Teams Being Organized

SOUTHFIELD—Basketball teams interested in entering the winter recreation league are requested to write Bob Watts at Southfield high school before Dec. 1.

Plans are being made for age groups 11-14, 14-17 and 17 or over. A 9-11 year age group will be included if there is enough interest.

The school gym will be available on Monday, Wednesday and Thursday evenings for league play.

Southfield Woods Extension Meets

EAST SOUTHFIELD—First fall session of the Southfield Woods Extension club was held Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. Allen Aylesworth, 28532 Everett. Mrs. Calvin Rix was appointed leader to decide who will attend monthly workshops. Mrs. Rix and Mrs. Dorey Courts will give the lesson at the Oct. 25 meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Lawrence Brown, 28501 Everett. The lesson will be "Christmas Workshop."

Attend Convention

SOUTHFIELD—R. F. Wuerfel, Zoning and board of appeals chairman, and James Hickey, land planner, returned Sunday night from a three day convention of the Michigan Society of Planning Officials held at Traverse City, as delegates of the township.

Franklin Village Franklin Oaks-Bingham Farms-Woodcrest Franklin School 5th Graders Hold Annual Flower Show

One of the nicest things about being in Mrs. Dee Richards' class in Franklin is the thrill of participating in the annual flower show, staged by her fifth graders last Thursday with the mothers as guests.

The judges, appointed by Mrs. Richards, were Mrs. William Worcester, Mrs. Gordon MacAlpine and Mrs. Paul Robl. After much deliberation, Donn McIntosh was declared grand prize winner with his vegetable arrangement entitled "State Fair."

Winners in the flower arrangement class were Diane Vaillancourt, Nancy Howard, Ricky Robl and Betty Byers. In the vegetable and fruit division the winner were Nancy Howard, Nancy Worcester, Judy Putnam and Jo Anne Wallace.

Mrs. Ralph Woodburn entertained yesterday at Oakland Hills Club in honor of Mrs. Thomas Adams, of New Haven, Conn., formerly of Franklin, who is visiting her for a couple of weeks. Visiting Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Newland of Crestwood is Mrs. Newland's mother, Mrs. Thomas J. Black. She'll soon be returning to Washington, D. C., but will be back in Franklin after the first of the year.

Tuesday night Mrs. Newland entertained a group of friends, mostly from Detroit, who have been meeting monthly for many years. Local guests included Mrs. Ralph Woodburn and Mrs. Edward Green.

Mr. and Mrs. George Donaldson of Greenbriar drove their daughter, Julie, to Kalamazoo where she enrolled as a freshman at Western Michigan college.

Sunday Mr. and Mrs. D. J. Crawford, Woodlore, entertained the Rev. G. Merrill Lenox, D. D., executive secretary of both the Michigan and the Detroit Council of Churches, and the Rev. and Mrs. Robert Searls, following the special service at the Franklin Community church.

The Philip Van Dykes, of Franklin road, spent a busy weekend in Grand Rapids where they were master and mistress of ceremonies at the wedding of Mr. Van Dyke's niece.

Mrs. Philip Van Dyke, Mrs. Preston Dozier, Mrs. Nick Rosello, Mrs. Dick Prohler, Mrs. Ralph Charles, Mrs. Robert Squires, Mrs. A. W. Bohn, and Mrs. R. C. Robinson.

Arriving today to spend the weekend with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Skeels of North Crownville are Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Rasmussen, from Grand Rapids; Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Bradley of Chicago; and Mrs. Thomas McGow of Convent Station, N. J. They'll all be heading for Ann Arbor Saturday to see the game with UCLA.

Yesterday the Ed Givens flew to California to spend a week in San Francisco. While there they'll be rooting for Michigan State against Stanford.

Anne, Bill and Mark Compson, children of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Compson, 14 mile road, are welcoming home today their new brother, James Charles, who weighed 8 1/2 lbs. when he was born Sept. 21 at Beaumont hospital.
