to the annual Bonspiel (competition) of the United States Women's Curling Association in February, is an ambitious undertaking.

A tea is scheduled for November to which members will bring guests interested in the sport. Local curlers Mrs. Arman Issette of Elizabeth avenue, Beverly Hills, and Mrs. Les W. Childs of Ramsgate, Lathrup Village, will be happy to give out with more information on the subject.

Seven Children Home for Reunion

Mrs. Norman Porter of Pierce street must have glowed with pride when thirty-two members of her immediate family gathered for a reunion recently at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Osmon Mills (Marian) of Clarkston.

Home for the occasion were another daughter and a son and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bahrens (Jane) of Niagara Falls, N. Y., and Capt. and Mrs. J. A. Porter and children, Cheryl, Terry and John, of Dayton, Ohio.

TREKING BACK to the grounds of their alma mater are alumnae of Kingswood school who are sponsoring a fashion show and tea Sept. 11. Chairman of the show to be put on by Boutique of Furs by Roberts is (from left) Miss Elizabeth Boyne with Mrs. John C. Malstrom, tea chairman, and Mrs. Robert T. Koch, model. Other alums acting as models will be Mrs. Charles E. Wilson, Jr., Mrs. Richard Kern, Mrs. William C. Beardslee and Mrs. Harold Lynch. The parade of fashions will begin at 2 p.m. in the auditorium of the school.

Rounding out the family picture at the picnic party were the rest of Mrs. Porter's seven children and their families, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Ehrenfeld (Eleanor) of Livonia, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Pettypiece (Phyllis) of Troy, the Norman K. Porters of Pontiac and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burton (Dorothy) of Norfolk drive, Birmingham.

All's Quiet at Baldwins' Home

There's quite a change of scenery at the home of the Kirk Baldwins this week. Daughter Denise is off visiting friends and relatives in Colorado and California and Monday, the Baldwins motored to Toronto, Canada, to take son Patrick back to his classes at St. Michael's college high school.

Pat and his brother, Timothy spent the summer working and golfing at Springdale golf course and Tim heads

Kappa Delta Alums To Discuss Project At Evening Meeting

South Oakland county Kappa Delta alumnae members will have a get acquainted meeting Sept. 13 at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs. John Von Eberstein of Royal Oak.

Plans will be formulated for fund raising ventures to benefit this year's project of the group, that of helping to furnish the speech therapy room at the new Oakland county hospital for crippled children.

Assisting the hostess will be Mrs. Thornton C. Schoch of Royal Oak and Mrs. Milton J. Taup of Gordon lane, Birmingham. Society deadline is 3 p.m. each Tuesday.
