MRS. LEONARD G. MILLER

Double-Ring Rites Solemnized Friday

Gowned in a white taffeta and alencon lace creation, Shirley Yevonne Elkins walked down the aisle of Hanover Presbyterian church in Wilmington, Del., to become the bride of Leonard Grandy Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Cassius Leonard Miller of Pilgrim street, Birmingham, who were present for the wedding.

The double-ring ceremony was solemnized Friday evening by Rev. Paul R. Miller, DuPont country club was the scene of the reception. Mr. and Mrs. Pearl G. Elkins traveled from their home in Lexington, Ky., to attend their daughter's marriage.

SHIRLEY'S dress was designed with a short sleeved empire bodice of alencon lace re-embroidered with pearls and sequins and scalloped at the scooped neckline. The taffeta extended from the bow accented bodice in a princess line, sweeping into a chapel train.

Completing her ensemble was a lace fingertip length veil and a cascade bouquet of white Amazon lilies and stephanotis.

Mrs. Robert Lee Metts of Lexington, Ky., served as matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Charles Franklin Elkins of Covington, Ky., and Jane Phillips of Wilmington.

MRS. METTS' frock was fashionlized of turquoise antique taffeta styled on princess lines with a scooped neckline and cap sleeves. Crystal pleating of aqua antique taffeta was inset in puffs around the hipline of the waist-length skirt and gored insets of the aqua pleating flounced at the hemline. The dresses of the maids were also in turquoise but with turquoise insets.

Their cascade arrangements of yellow pom-pom chrysanthemums were tied with yellow tulle and their headpieces were in a turquoise shade.

Stephen O. Stubbs of Birmingham was best man and guests were seated by Robert M. Bonner and James N. Owens of Wilmington.

Charles Franklin Elkins, Jr., was ringbearer.

MRS. ELKINS pinned a corsage of talisman roses to her beige lace over taffeta sheath. Mrs. Miller's gray organza over pink taffeta gown was accented by pink roses. Attending the rites, from Birmingham were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Adams, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wilson, the Preston E. Weirs and Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Stubbs. Thursday evening, the Millers were hosts to 40 guests at the rehearsal dinner in the Hotel Dupont in Wilmington.
