Robert M. Clarks to Welcome Visitor from Lone Star State

A thrilled grandmother will be Mrs. Frank Hasse as she arrives from Corpus Christi, Texas, tomorrow. Equally thrilled will be Mr. and Mrs. Robert Clark of South Williamsburg when they introduce their 14 month-old daughter, Karen Lynne, to her grandmother for the first time.

The Clarks hope to have Mrs. Hasse as their houseguest for some time.

Jim Lovell, son of the Robert R. Lovells of North Clifton road, left on Aug. 31 for Elmira, N. Y., where he will spend the few remaining days before returning to classes, restoring an antique car. The car, an Amil, is a French racing car. Jim will then travel to the Cornell campus for his sophomore year. Susan Lovell leaves shortly for Centenary College in East Hackettstown, N. J.

Joel Farrell of Schenectady, N. Y., is spending a few days with his roommate John Bradford Hubert of Tibury road. Both boys are juniors at Dartmouth. Around Sept. 15 Mr. and Mrs. Forest Hubert and daughter Christina will drive not only John back to school but another son, Peter as well, who will be entering his freshman year.

New to the Village are Dr. and Mrs. Frank Hartage of Drury Lane and their two little sons Frank Jr., two and Tom, 4 months. The Hartages, formerly of Detroit, are members of the Detroit Yacht Club. Dr. Hartage is a graduate of the University of Detroit while Mrs. Hartage is a Marygrove graduate. The Hartages will be members of Holy Name church.

Dr. and Mrs. George Evaseff and family of Amberly road vacationed recently in northern Michigan and traveled on to Hayward, Wis. where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wade.

The Raymond F. Giffels of Glen-garry are combining business with pleasure this weekend when they travel east. They will visit their daughter Mrs. E. B. Cochran of Packanack Lake, N. J., see a few interesting sights of New York and take in a few shows while there.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Dibble Jr.
