

Walnut Lake Area Henry Gregorichs Attend Reunion at Houghton

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Gregorich of North Clunbury road, with daughters, Mrs. Ellen and Marsha, have just returned from a visit with the children's grandmother, Mrs. Catherine Gregorich, of Houghton.

The exciting part of the vacation for the parents was attending Michigan College of Mining and Technology at Houghton. The reunions are held every five years, and this is the second the couple have attended.

The C. R. Funks, who have bought a new home on Walnut Lake road, west of Orchard Lake, moved out of their Darra-moor address last Saturday to enable the new owners to occupy it.

However, before taking up residence at their Walnut Lake road home, the Funks, who are leaving on the east. They will stay at Cape Anne in Gloucester, Mass., and during a trip around the New England states will stop off in Connecticut to visit old friends.

Rachael Reed, who with her mother, Mrs. Kyle Winemiller of Putnam drive, to Bridgeport, Ohio, on her vacation trip this year. There they visited with her grandmother, Mrs. Sophie Chadwick.

Houston residents who were for a week were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Reed and family of Muncie, Ind., and at the present time Miss Ruby Phillips, also of Muncie.

The Lynn H. Hammers of East-moor road drove to Colorado on their summer vacation, and report they had a colorful and spectacular sojourn.

Their first week was spent at

Walnut Lake Area Newcomers Introduced to Column Readers

Welcome back to the Birmingham area is in order for the Duncan H. Hammers, formerly of Longmeadow drive, who have spent the last year in Texas. The Hammers bought a home on Walnut Lake road, and have done considerable remodeling since moving there in June.

Their family includes daughter, Ann, 19, next Christmas, Ann, who graduated from Birmingham high school in June, 1955, will be a sophomore at Rollins college in Orlando, Fla., when she begins classes the second week of September. Her brother, Randolph, Jr., 16, will attend Birmingham high school.

Mrs. Hammer was active in the Birmingham League of Women Voters, and is a member of the newly formed Village Women's club. The family attended Christ Church Cranbrook. Hammer is associated with the Parker Rust-proof Co., Detroit.

Other newcomers are the James E. Steeles of East Darra-moor road, lifelong residents of Pennsylvania. They moved here from Swarthmore, Pa.

Beta 10, will attend Walnut Lake school in the fifth grade; John, 6, will be in the first grade, and, 3, will keep mother company at home.

The Steeles, both graduates of City college, are members of the yachting club at school, an interest which developed into long canoe trips after their marriage.

This has continued throughout the children's childhood, and the family has camped on many of their vacations, in many parts of New England. Because of their move to Michigan, the family settled for a short stay at Grayling this summer.

Both parents are interested in music, and Mrs. Steele was busy in the Woman's Club at Swarthmore. Steele is associated with the Detroit Tube and Steel Co., Dearborn, a subsidiary of the Harcon Steel Corp. of Sharon, Pa.

After 27 Years of Separation Brother, Sister Hold Reunion

Visiting this week in the Mayfair lane home of Mr. and Mrs. Ludwig Emde are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Krug of Sao Paulo, Brazil. Mrs. Krug is a sister to Mr. Emde and during which time the Krugs have lived in Germany and now in South America.

The happy family reunion brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. H. Emde of Dayton, Ohio, and brother-in-law, Ralph McCallister of Chautauque, N. Y.

Last week, Mrs. Emde entertained 14 guests with a kitchen-supper luncheon honoring Ruth Woughler of Detroit whose marriage to John W. Friesma, Jr. will be a September 15 event.

Neighbors and friends are happy to welcome back the R. P. Ganchan family after their two-month absence from their Northchester home. Mildred and Dick, with their children, Richard, Kinsey and Texas, Meg and Susan, returned to the first of July where they have been visiting Mrs. Ganchan's mother in Houston. Mr. Ganchan's mother in Beaumont.

Business made Mr. Ganchan a commuter between Texas and Michigan during the period, but Mrs. Ganchan's visit was punctuated with almost daily parties given in reunion celebration by hospitable Texans, happy to see their friend and school-mate. The Ganchan children increased their swimming ability with daily plunges in a near-by pool.

Claire Jacobs Sees Europe With Student Group on Tour

Touring Europe this summer is one vacation Claire Jacobs will never forget. Claire, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Jacobs of Parkhurst Lane, toured Europe with a group of Birmingham high school students under the guidance of E. A. Hubbard, Birmingham high school teacher.

Sailing June 29, the group toured through England, Holland, France, Italy, Switzerland and Belgium. Although Claire loved European food, she found it difficult to like the overabundance of their ways and customs.

During her travels she bought some silver in Holland, jewelry in Germany and France, china from Italy, a ski sweater from Switzerland and some beautiful linens from Belgium.

Mr. and Mrs. David Falconer and children, David and Barbara returned to their home on Jackson Lake Lane Aug. 25 after spending three weeks at Bass Lake, near Ludington.

The Falconers are happy to report that they survived the summer without one case of poison ivy.

A chicken barbecue took place last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rowland Starr of Old Mill road. Guests gathered on the terrace for cocktails before tasting Mr. Starr's deliciously broiled chickens.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blackie, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Hemphill, Mr. and Mrs. William Markle, Mrs. Harold Sawyer, Dr. and Mrs. Benton Reed and Mr. and Mrs. Larry McFadden.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nette of Middlebury Lane, Westchester and children, Ricki and Pat recently returned from a two-week vacation at Crystal Lake, near Belah.
