Burnetts Watch Native Dive 137 Feet Off Cliff

Springtime in Mexico was the vacation theme for the Dean Burnetts of Weatherlane drive, Thornwood. Their trip began by flying to Chicago, to Dallas, Texas and then on to Mexico. Their first stop was at Acapulco, Mexico, where they spent a most interesting five days. A sight that will long be remembered by the Burnetts took place at the Club Perla where a native boy dove 137 feet from a ledge between narrow cliffs into a shallow gorge. The dive had to be performed as the ocean water was entering the gorge in order to be a success. The Burnetts were among the sights of the Hotel Hacienda Vista Hermosa, and it was there they met and chatted with Betty Ford, the American bull fighter.

enthusiasts, much time was spent at the Coral Ridge country club. Sam Snead, Cary Middlecoff and Wally Burkamo were among the celebrities golfing at the club. Other friends enjoying their vacation at the same time were Otto Millbrands of Bloomfield Hills and the Nicholas Blossoms of Detroit.

On their way home, they stopped off at Las Vegas, Nev., for a few days. A souvenir of the trip was "Fifi," a toy poodle, who turned out to be a very good traveler on the flight home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Mezey of 3936 Oakhill drive, Thornwood, announced the birth of a daughter, Marne Beth, on March 12. The baby was born at the William Beaumont Hospital and weighed 6 lbs. 14 oz.
