The dance committee has set May 17 as the date. Only stag tickets will be sold this time.

The track season has begun at Derby with Mr. Vavruska, math teacher, in charge. The competition will include such events as the broad jump, the high jump, the shot put, relays, and races.

All grades may compete by signing up in the boys' locker room. Mr. Vavruska believes that later in the year it is probable a team will be chosen from this group to meet a similar team from Barnum junior high.

Eighth grade girls in sewing class held a fashion show Friday. Karen Smith, student council president, was among those modeling their creations. Karen wore a blue party dress, white heels. She later displayed a yellow summer outdoor skirt.

Jayce McCracken gave a party Friday. Derby friends attending were Pat Mason, Terry McKee-

Carol Vase, ninth grader, was recently a winner of a scholastic writing award for her short story entry.

Derby's spelling bee champion, as of last Friday's contest, is Bruce Berry, of the eighth grade. Elaine Newland, also of the eighth grade, was runner-up, missing on the word "incidentally." In third place was Carol LaVan.

Plans for a late spring dance were drawn up last week at the student council meeting.

French Classes
Compose Skills

Students in George Cooch's French II classes in groups of five or six people recently composed skills in French dialogue and presented them for the class stories. Costumes were often original and amusing.

Miss Virginia Louis's French I class looked in on the plays and also performed brief two-people skits of their own.

Hi! BIKE PILOTS!

For real fun and exercise, bicycling's a hard sport to look! But, it might be dangerous if you don't know and apply all of the safety rules.

Most bicycling accidents are due to just plain carelessness. Chief riding errors are:

1. Weaving in and out of traffic
2. Ignoring traffic signals
3. Carrying riders
4. Making wrong turns
5. Taking foolish chances

Smart pilots steer clear of accidents by obeying the "Rules of the Road!"
