Lathrup Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brighton of Coral Gables, Fla., returned from a round trip by air to Palm Springs, California where they stayed at the Desert Riviera. They had a relaxing, swam and sunned. They visited the new Indian Wells country club and hotel which opened March 30. This is the fabulous new club belonging to a new son, Richard, born March 15, busy with the workmen and dressed in work clothes himself.

Mr. and Mrs. William Arvosen of Sunset attended the convention of the John Hancock Mutual Life insurance company at Boca Raton, Florida. Staying at the Boca Raton hotel they enjoyed the planned activities of the convention company including coffee hours, bridge and swimming for the ladies and company dinners and parties for the entire group.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Ritter of Sunbrook spent four weeks in Florida. They first went to Key West, then to Ft. Lauderdale where they stayed at the Ocean Air hotel.

On their return trip they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Farnsworth, Mr. Ritter's cousins of Atlanta, Georgia.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Slack of Wilshire entertained two tables of bridge Saturday evening followed by midnight buffet.

Their guests were Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Perkins, Dr. and Mrs. John Hodgins, both of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. William Kent of Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. Simon A. Mason in Commerce Lodge 121 and enjoys carterage in his spare time. He is with the Ford Motor Company, Sterling Plant, Mrs. Boshugh likes gardening and sewing.

Dr. and Mrs. Norman Sturm along with daughters Heidi and Holly one year moved here in December from Royal Oak. Dr. Sturm, a graduate of University of Michigan is affiliated with Delta Sigma Delta and belongs to the District Dental Association. The Sturms are making plans for their swimming pool they are installing soon to have ready for summer fun. Dr. Sturm is a dentist with his office in Berkeley.

Residents of one year are Mr. and Mrs. Donald Moses of Southgate Drive. Both are graduates of Michigan State. Mrs. Moses belongs to the Birmingham Chapter of Gamma Phi Beta and Mr. Moses belongs to Phi Kappa Tau and is staff engineer for Vickers Company. The couple recently returned from a trip to New York. While there they attended the Broadway play "Lil Abner."

Mr. and Mrs. John Dahmer of Rock Creek Drive arrived in October from Detroit. They have two daughters, Mary, age two, and Therese who just celebrated her first birthday. Mr. Dahmer graduated from Wayne University in Fine Arts and is art coordinator with the Mercury Division of Ford Motor Company. Mrs. Dahmer graduated from Marquette University in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

They were very fortunate to have excellent weather all the time for color slide pictures. In the Smokies the wild redoubt, Forsythia and flowering almond offered a profusion of color.

They found all blossoms in bloom from a background of blue. Mr. Devin is very hopeful that he got some particularly effective pictures.

During their stay in the capital city they attended sessions of the House of Representatives and the Senate. Both were deep in the discussion of the President's budget.

Donald Dennis Cooke, ten-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cooke, of Sunbrook, was crowned Monday evening, April 8 at St. Michael's church.

Celebrating this event was a family dinner Sunday with Donnie's grandmothers, Mrs. Edith Ranney of Detroit, his aunt and uncle, Miss Mary Koenig and Mr. Nicholas Koenig and his brothers Henry and Michael.

Mrs. Henry Cooke of Sunbrook, announced this event was a bi-monthly ginocch club. Following cards, a midnight dinner and coffee. It served for table centerpiece was in Easter decor. Members of the group are Gladys Vest, Frances Witt, Mary Anne Odom, Alma Goff, Gerry Cooke, Edith Cooke, and Marjorie Farison and Ellen Cooke.

After spending March in Florida, Mr. and Mrs. L. Mackey Sr. returned to Lathrup and its rain. Mr. Mackey, home from college for the weekend, and L. E. Jr. and wife Bert, who had spent the first three weeks in the sunny South with them.

Larry Jr. received his discharge from the Air Force Feb. 12, and they left Chandler Air Force Base, Houston with plans for a month's vacation in Florida. The four Mackeys left March 1 and the young Mr. Mackeys were home the twenty-first. After four years in the Air Force, a month away from home, was not too much for them. They were homesick!

The Mackeys made Pompano Beach their home base. One of their side trips was to Key West, Ft. Lauderdale and Miami.

A welcomed visitor was Mrs. Norma Gable, mother of Mrs. Mackey Sr. Mr. Mackey Sr. enjoyed golf. One of his companions was Mr. Roy Smith, of Bloomfield Hills formerly a Lathrup resident. The Mackeys also saw Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jarvis, during their stay. The Jarvisses, formerly of Lathrup, now reside at Wing Lake.

The Mackeys have taken up residence in Farmington, and he has accepted a position with Chrysler missile operations.

Mr. and Mrs. John K. Jones, boys, returned to their home on Golden Gate. They drove to Louisville, Ky. and were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Jones' brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Vandiver. By Ft. Lauderdale during ten days of sun and rest they met the Claps Smiths former Lathrupites, and Mr. and Mrs. Jane Wheeler, of Santa Barbara.

The Harvey Cuddells, San Jose, combined business with pleasure when they flew to Colorado recently. Arriving in Denver at the end of a blizzard, they experienced some high winds and rather low temperatures. But, the weather did not affect their mountain viewing and they report the scenery breathlessly beautiful with the evergreens against the snow-covered peaks.

After the weekend at Denver Mr. and Mrs. Caddell went on to Colorado Springs for the remainder of their stay.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Robert Loh of Sarasota, are more Lathrup Villagers all browned and tanned from a Florida vacation. The holidays returned last Saturday after three weeks at their usual holiday spot Marathon on the Florida Keys.

They visited with their nephew Richard Lee Laska at the Keston Military Institute in Venice, Fla. Mr. and Mrs. Loh spent a couple of days in Fort Meyers resort wonderful weather while swimming every day.

Mrs. Robert Wenderlich of Glenwood will entertain guests today with a luncheon and Bolivia. They will be Mrs. Bernard Robertson Mrs. Bruce Schaffer, Mrs. Larry Gardner, Mrs. Roy Macdonald, Mrs. Letitia Cobb, Mrs. Harold Freundt and Mrs. Alan Miller.

Three Exchange Students Guests Of Southfield PTA

Three foreign exchange students from the University of Detroit spotlighted the Southfield high school PTA meeting recently.

Augustine Pashpari from India explained the population and caste problems. He reported that approximately 80% of the people of India are uneducated. He favors the universal use of the English language and feels that rather than teaching foreign languages in our schools we should stress the knowledge of the English language since one can travel all over the world speaking only English and always find someone who understands it.

Rezzuk Adem of Turkey spoke of the Turkish educational system explaining that our alphabet has been used exclusively in Turkey only since 1928, when a complete changeover was made.

Joseph Seta of Venezuela told of the low living standards in his home country, but added that in Venezuela a high school teacher's wage of $320 per hour was considered extremely high.

New officers elected at the business meeting are Mrs. A. A. Lehmann, first vice president; Mrs. L. P. Schull, second vice president; Victor Almas, father vice president; Mrs. Gordon Pagan, recording secretary; Mrs. John Jenkins, corresponding secretary; John Monell, treasurer and Mrs. John Anderson, historian.

The Jessie Davenport scholarship fund proposal was accepted, providing a grant of a minimum of $200 to an education student each year.

The Junior-Senior after-prom dinner has been set for June 1, to be sponsored by the PTA.

Dog Beaten, $624 Taken in Breakin

SOUTHFIELD — Gorman Golf Products at Telegraph and 12 Mile road was broken into Friday night by thieves who broke open a safe and took $624.91.

Patrolman Charles Durbin said entry was gained by smashing a rear window. Tools in the shop were used to break open the safe. A Doberman watchdog was beaten on the head by burglars who evidently feared the dog would attract attention or attack them, said Durbin.

People's Column Editorial Coverage Is Morale Booster

To the Editor: The Democratic Women's club was so pleased with last Thursday's story and picture.

You have no idea what a boost gives their morale to help the Eccentric and find their activities covered.

We really appreciate your efforts. Thank you, and thanks, too, for sending us the photograph.
