Westchester Women May Organize Club

Last month at a meeting at the home of Mrs. Vernon Fitch of Westchester Village, a questionnaire was given to the women present. It concerned organizing the women in fellowship and activities.

This evening the women will meet at the home of Mrs. Henry Gluckstadt of Farmingdale road. Results of the questionnaire are so enthusiastic that tonight's meeting will be to organize a women's association. At this meeting a slate of officers will be presented and committees will be formed. Assisting Mrs. Gluckstadt as hostesses will be Mrs. Edward E. Bolle and Mrs. John Schuster.

Twins were born to Mr. and Mrs. John B. Noughton of Bradford Rd. Brian Patrick 5 pounds 13 oz. and Nancy Patricia 4 pounds 13 oz. were born at St. Joseph hospital in Pontiac on March 26th. Brian and Nancy will be welcomed home by Donald, Susan, John and Michael.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Nette of Breckinridge rd. have just returned from a five-week stay in Florida. Ricky five and Pat two enjoyed the sun and swimming along with

Have You Met . . .
 Mr. and Mrs. William Long of Meadow Lake Farms who moved to their new home at 60th Halyard road from their former home on Glastonbury rd. in Detroit. They have two sons, Billy, 9, and Bobby, 7, both attending Walnut Lake school. Long is in the brokerage business.

Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Wise moved to 1888 Cragin drive in Lone Pine Heights after six years of residence in other states. Previous to this move they were in California. They have a daughter, Claudia, 7, and a son Roger, 2. Wise belongs to several technical organizations in connection with his profession. He is in the guided missile program of the Chrysler Corp. The newcomers attend St. James Episcopal church of Birmingham. They are looking forward to boating and sailing in the warmer weather

Bloomfield 4-H Wins Top Honors

BLOOMFIELD—Bloomfield 4-H Club, a very active group of hard-working youngsters, took many of the top honors at the recent Oakland county Achievement Day at the Lincoln junior high school in Pontiac.

Many received blue ribbons for class A, red and white ribbons for honor roll recognition, which means they were in the top 10 percent for Oakland county exhibits, and some were chosen for showing at the fall exhibition in Lansing. In foods, Robert Szymke, Linda Sie Nagelvoort and Linda Jacobson received blue ribbon and honor roll awards, and Philip Trzosa a blue ribbon.

IN ELECTRICAL, Douglas Norland, Ralph Hoxie and Robert Szymke received blue ribbons, the first two being chosen for state showing and Robert for honor roll.

In handicrafts, Sara Snyder, Helen Miles, Paul Norland, Bill Saylor and Rickmann Hoxie received blue ribbons, with Sara and Paul also chosen for state showing.

In photography, Hugh Nickel, Janine Rodick and Linda Sie Nagelvoort and Christine Simonson received blue ribbons. In junior leadership and in bee-keeping both Cliff Rice received blue ribbons, as did clothing, Wendie Nabalowitz, Linda Henderson, Judy Simeth, Judy Broxton, Rickmann Hoxie and Linda Sie Nagelvoort. Linda Sie Nagelvoort, with Judy, Rickmann and Nan also on the honor roll.

In advanced clothing, Dianne Barber, July Eastburn, Priscilla Snyder, Carol Brodie, Linda Jacobson, Sara Saylor and Sharon Brodie received blue ribbons. In addition, Priscilla received a dress review pin as a special honor.

Junior Olympians

BRAES OF BLOOMFIELD—John Fraser, Bill Quick, Dave Sanborn, Russ Jokela, S. A. J. Schueler, Tim Mitchell and Bill Buckingham are the seven young aspirants who have been competing in the Junior Olympics held in Braes 3. Judges for the ten different events were Kenneth Quick, James Sanborn, Jr., and Dr. Russell Jokela. Awards will be made to the top three winners and recognition given to all finalists at a winner roast when the weather is more suitable. A swimming meet to be held during the summer months is next on the boys' agenda.

Club Celebrates Member's Birthday

BLOOMFIELD WEST—There was a gay time at the Stanley J. Voorheis home on West Maple road last week as members of Mrs. Voorheis' bridge group feted one of their number with a birthday surprise. Mrs. A. J. Danahy of Valley Spring road was the happy guest.

Because a lady's age is no one's affair but her own, candles trimming the cake added up to the number of club members.
