

The Birmingham Eccentric

SECTION F

Thursday, April 11, 1957

Many observing people can determine, in a few hours of companionship with another, just what basic qualities compose this companion's personality. The thoughts spoken may be cheerful, helpful, or critical and gloomy. The acts may reveal usefulness, or its opposite. We reveal, daily, what we are by what we say, how we act.

Baldwin PTA Plans Program Of Civil Defense

With the spring tornado season already under way, questions will be answered at the Baldwin PTA program at 8 p.m. Monday, particularly what to do if there's a tornado alert and the children are in school.

The panel of experts for the meeting will include Robert Kenning, assistant city manager and Birmingham Civil Defense director; Mrs. Lynn Bess-bay, Southfield Township Civil Defense director; and Laurel Goodrich, assistant principal of Birmingham high, in charge of civil defense for the Birmingham school system.

They will be prepared to answer questions about almost any natural catastrophe except flooded basements, and rules for Civil Defense in the Birmingham area.

Also on the agenda is election of officers for next year.

Alpha Xi Delta To Install Slate

Mrs. Gordon Reynolds will take office as president of Alpha Xi Delta Monday evening, at the group's founders' day dinner at Aunt Fanny's.

Comprising the slate are Mrs. Richard England, vice president; Mrs. R. W. McIntosh, secretary; Mrs. Paul Brownell, treasurer; and Mrs. Ed Justice, assistant treasurer.

Mrs. Richard Johnson of Lansing, province vice president, will be guest speaker and installing officer.
