BIRMINGHAM RESIDENTS. Mrs. R. G. Hoover, Miss Alice Milbrand and Mrs. Bernice Butterfield, teachers at Vaughan school, Bloomfield Hills, struck it lucky last week as they witnessed the 30th Cherry Blossom Festival at the Tidal Basin in Washington, D.C. The Japanese blossoms with the warm rain and sunshine opened in their full glory. Here a photographer of the Washington Evening Star caught the strollers enjoying the blossoms as they walked the Tidal Basin. Besides visiting governmental places of interest, the ladies paid visits to senators and representatives of their districts, and courtesy passes were extended to them, for visits through the Senate and House chambers and also the White House. From Washington, D.C., they drove to Alexandria, Mt. Vernon and Fredricksburg for further sightseeing.
