Chairmen of the event were Ed Kurth and Dick Young.

Scientist's Report On Sunflower Set At Cranbrook

CRANBROOK — The Origin of the Cultivated Sunflower is the subject of a talk to be given by Dr. Charles Heiser, Jr., of Indiana university, Wednesday evening in the auditorium of Cranbrook school.

This scientist's report is one of a number given through the year by Cranbrook Institute of Science, and open to the public.

Dr. Heiser has been interested in ways man has consciously or unconsciously affected native species such as sunflower and pepper. The complex history of the seemingly simple sunflower becomes interesting material in the hands of a scientist.
