Clarks Exchange Smiles, Waves, with Ike and Mamie

The Douglas Clarks of Tutbury road took advantage of their children's Easter vacation this year and made a 10 day trip through the East. Meriden, Conn., was their first stop where they spent a few days with Mrs. L. O. O'Brien, Mrs. Clarks' mother.

Their trip took them on to Washington, D.C., where they toured the F.B.I., the U.S. Mint, Mr. Vernon, and the Lincoln Memorial, with sons Doug and Donald. Senator Aiken escorted the Clarks on a tour through the Capitol and the Senate.

A highlight of the trip came as they were passing the White House when President Eisenhower was leaving. As he was driven through the gates smiles and waves were exchanged. A second treat was in store for them on the following day, as this time Mamie was with Ike.

Other stops were made at Gettysburg, Williamsburg and Monticello, Va. Doug and Donald have many interesting and exciting tales to tell their friends at Easter, now that they are home again.

The Frederick Owers and their daughter, Judy, of Hickory Heights drive, have recently returned from a week in New York. It was a busy week of shopping, attending the play "Little Abner" and the Easter Show at the Radio City Music Hall. They dined in French and English restaurants. A favorite stop of the Owers is Astor Restaurant with its singing waiters in Greenwich Village.

A stop-off to view the splendor of the Vanderbilt mansion at Hyde Park, N. Y., was also on the agenda before their trip home.

Many of the North Adams area residents are returning home these days from vacations in Florida. Among them are the Harry Mark-eyes of Charing Cross road, their two months were spent at Palm Beach, Fla. While there they enjoyed many cocktail and dinner parties. Markey is a golf enthusiast and spent a great deal of time playing at the West Palm Beach club and the Palm Beach Shores.

The Kingsley Browns of Charing Cross have recently returned home after spending two months at Del Ray, Fla. On their way home they stopped off at Shaker Heights, Ohio, to visit their daughter, Mrs. Robert Gyzik, Jr. and her family.

Another couple returning from Florida are the Joseph Paulicks,

Jr., of Tutbury Lane. Their stay was spent at Daytona Beach, where they enjoyed a leisurely ten days with the Wallis Gahlers of Royal Oak.

The men spent many a happy hour deep sea fishing and on one trip they caught 40 fish. Among the catch were King, Mackerel, and Bonita.

Home again after two weeks at Fort Lauderdale, Fla., are the Leon Rutlers of Oakhill drive. While here they were houseguests of the Frank Fruchas at their winter home on the Marion river near Fort Lauderdale. The Fruchas are relatives of the Rutlers and are residents of Beverly Hills.

On one of the deep sea fishing trips, Butler caught 30 pounds of Kingfish, that has been put in the Fruchas deep freeze for future use.

The Richard Wickhams and their four-year-old daughter, Diane, of Oakhill drive motored to Daytona Beach for two weeks recently. They made their headquarters at the Desert Isle and enjoyed the sunning and swimming. One of the trip's highlights was a tour of Marine Land.

The Paul Metzlers hosted a dinner party at their Charing Cross road home on Saturday evening, April 6. After dinner the six couples attended the spring dance given by the Harlequin Dance club at the Pontiac country club.

Mobles of baseballs, bats and balls centered the tables. To carry the theme further, each couple wore a baseball identification tag.

Those in the Metzler party were the Vincent Gillens, the Joseph Houshorns, the Wayne Landys, and the Robert Montgomerys, all of the Birmingham area.

These are very busy days at the Joseph Schmidt home on Eastwood road, getting ready for the approaching marriage of their daughter, Helen Marie.

Showers have been given by Mrs. Harold Guster of Bermuda road, Birmingham and Mrs. Richard Hoshner of Pontiac, for the bride elect. More showers are slated for the next two weeks.

Helen Marie is a graduate of Ohio University and is an Alpha Delta Phi. Her fiancé is Glenn M. Dick, son of Mr. and Mrs. David M. Dick of Walled Lake. Glenn is a graduate of Wayne University and is now taking his master's at Wayne in business administration.

The candlelight wedding will take place at Kirk in the Hills, on May 4. A reception will follow at
