Margaret Aitken Booth Weds at Christ Church

Margaret Aitken Booth, daughter of the Bruce G. Booths of Parklane court, Bloomfield township, and Robert W. Mitchell, son of the John H. Mitchells of Detroit, were united in marriage Saturday at Christ Church Cranbrook.

Rev. Robert L. DeWitt solemnized the 2 p.m. ceremony, which was followed by a reception in Orchard Lake country club.

A CROWN of seed pearls secured the bride's double tiered veil of white silk illusion, as she came down the aisle in a gown of white rose point lace over taffeta and nylon tulle. The gown was designed with sabrina neckline and short sleeves. A tucked cummerbund of white silk taffeta accented the bride. Complementing the bridal ensemble was a floral arrangement of lilies-of-the-valley and white Phalaenopsis orchids.

MARGARET was preceded down the aisle by four attendants in white taffeta waltz length gowns. Maid of honor was Barbara Hamel, and bridesmaids were Mrs. William Mahler and Mrs. Richard Mitchell of Detroit and Barbara Leake of Ann Arbor.

Pale yellow taffeta cummerbunds draped into bustle bows on their frocks, styled with sweetheart necklines and short sleeves. Complementing their outfits were small crowns and bouquets of ivy and yellow daisies.

Mrs. Booth chose a navy silk costume suit and pinned white orchids to her purse. The mother of the groom wore a blue lace dress with matching hat and white camellias.

GUESTS were seated by William Booth, David Lawner, Eric Gorty, Richard T. Booth and Donald C. Booth. Stewart Armstrong was best man.

After a honeymoon trip to the Caribbean Islands, Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will make their home in Oak Park. The bride's going away costume was a pale gray suit with white accessories and corsage of white orchids.
