

Parr-Lucas Marriage Solemnized Saturday

Bridal attendants in Orchid chifon gowns preceded Gloria Ann Lucas down the aisle of First Methodist church Saturday evening, when she became the bride of Robert Alan Parr.

Rev. Horace G. Thurston performed the ceremony in the presence of 200 guests. After the rites, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Leonard Lucas of Kirkcaldy road, Bloomfield township, and Mr. and Mrs. Emerson J. Parr of Royal Oak joined their daughter and son in receiving guests in the church parlors.

GLORIA'S bridal gown was fashioned of off-white silk tulle taffeta, featuring a yoke of re-embroidered Brussels lace, designed with a portrait neckline and short sleeves. The full skirt was caught up in back by two tailored bows, creating a bustle effect, and terminating in a circular train.

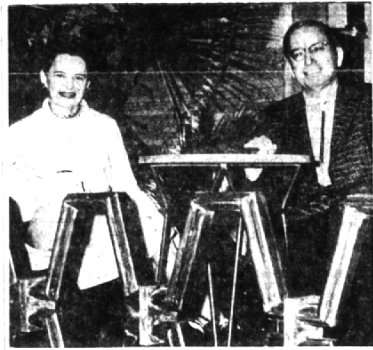

Her finger tip length veil of silk illusion was secured to a pillow of Brussels lace. A bouquet of roses, orchids, lilies-of-the-valley and trailing ivy completed her ensemble.

MAHELEN Percival served as maid of honor, and bridesmaids were Loretta Lucas, Audrey Lucas of Dearborn and Nancy Thorington of Detroit.

Their gowns were designed with V necklines, full skirts and floating back panels. They were matching hats and white gloves and carried baskets of violets with trailing ivy.

David E. Parr of Royal Oak was best man. Ushers were Donald L. Lucas of Dearborn, Robert G. Lucas of Albion, Fred Mollerander of Birmingham and Stanford E. Smith of Fraser.

Mrs. Lucas chose a gown of chintilly lace and nylon tulle in a champagne hue. Mint green chiffon

EVERYTHING YOU DO!

FROM THE MOMENT you awaken until you go to bed, almost everything you do is closely dependent upon the operation of trucks. In fact, even while you're asleep, trucks are working for you. (Beds arrive by truck, too, of course.)

Without trucks, your favorite food market would have empty shelves. Without trucks, you wouldn't find gas stations located conveniently almost everywhere you turn. Without trucks, the building of new homes, factories, and stores would slow to a walk and businesses of all kinds everywhere would suffer. Sooner or later, everything you eat, wear, or use depends on trucks for transportation. Eventually, everything has to get to you — the consumer. So, when you consider that trucks haul three times the tonnage handled by all the other forms of transportation combined, you realize how very important they are to you!

I Love Easter....

Maybe I'm prejudiced because it's my day, but I'm just nuts about Easter. I like the chocolate bunnies, the beautiful flowers, and all the good things to eat. Speaking of good things to eat just look at all the good things Kroger has for you this Easter.
