YMCA Camp Enthusiast Outlines Vacation Trip

To the Editor: At the request of the program office of the Birmingham YMCA, I am writing about our recent Florida trip.

It is now true that another 44 persons know the advantage of a Florida vacation through attendance at the Dearborn YMCA-Birmingham YMCA Camp at Lake Byrd Lodge, Avon Park, Florida, from March 4 to March 18. That was the number of Detroit area folks who attended a part or all of the camp. It is my estimation that this was probably the most successful Florida trip in the history of the Detroit YMCA.

ON MONDAY, March 4, camp opened. Five arrived by plane early that morning, two came by bus and the rest by private automobile. There were more arrived by plane on the following Friday.

A luscious chicken dinner was served at the first meal and set the pattern for the other 41 meals which were to follow. In subsequent days there were fish fries, Sunday evening buffets and many other features to tickle the palate of the most discriminating. One of the features was the ever present pitcher of fresh cold milk on each table, plus hot coffee, tea and hot tea. Fresh rolls, baked in the lodge kitchen, were served at the lunches and dinners, with huge Hill where one's car seemingly goes back to the Lodge singing the praises of Don Lee, Bengal pitch and Jiminy Smal who hit a home run and triple and turned in several stellar fielding plays.

FRIDAY was given over to shopping trips to Lake Wales, Avon Park and Sebring, three pretty towns in the citrus belt. Still another group went to Clearwater on a deep-sea fishing expedition. When the 11 stalwarts, including two women, returned to camp, they brought with them two wash-tubs full of groupers, grunts and bass, plus a couple 'show' fish, one snakefish and one blowfish. Of course, that gave rise to the first of the fish fries.

On Saturday, the baseball-minded went to Sarasota to watch our Tigers wallop the Boston Red Sox 10-1. Wives, not interested in baseball, spent the afternoon shopping in Sarasota. The menfolk came a carillon concert near Lake Wales, and trips to nearby towns, including Winter Haven, Frostproof, Orlando, even Miami, the last mentioned 180 miles away. The exodus began on Saturday with the majority getting away on Monday, March 18, including 11 who flew back to Willow Run by air coach, a four-hour trip, on Monday night. There is something about the fragrance of the citrus groves, the camaraderie of the lodge and its bathing pier, the hospitality of the Florida residents and the loads of sunshine which one just cannot forget. This was truly an experience which will long be remembered. It was had at a cost that was reasonable and within the means of most people.
