

Cranbrook Village

Roberta Dearth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dearth of 2966 Southgate drive celebrated her seventh birthday with a party for her friends on Saturday April 13.

Admiring the pink and white decorations and enjoying the pink and white cake were the following guests from Cranbrook Village: Jill Rullenger, Ricky Bernthaus, Kathleen Jolla, Beth Harris, Gregory and Peggy Smith, Ricky Strey, Susan Forsak and Susan Stobog. Joining the party from Detroit was guest Betty Markovich.

ARRIVING in Cranbrook Village two months ago from Pontiac but originally from Ferndale are the Dean Ely family of 29331 Southgate drive. They have a daughter Lynn two years old.

Mrs. Ely is a graduate of Michigan State University and is a Phi Kappa Phi honoree. She also enjoys painting and sewing as a hobby. Both love skiing and the family belongs to the Spine Club for young married couples on the Drayton Avenue Presbyterian church in Ferndale.

Ely attended Lawrence Institute of Technology and is a builder and carpenter in the Birmingham and Bloomfield Hills area.

MR. AND MRS. Robert Criser 29309 Southgate drive have been here since June from Oak Park. They have a daughter Carol, three years old, and a Tommy, who is seven months. Mr. Criser is an amateur ham radio operator. The couple recently returned from a weekend in Dayton, Ohio attending a ham convention there. Mr. Criser is in sales with the Wooster Rubber Company in Ohio.

ALSO MOVING here from Oak Park are Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Fisher and children Davis, 3½ and Jane seven months, of 19479 Buttercup lane. Both are graduates of Michigan State.

Mrs. Fisher belonged to Kappa Alpha Theta and Phi Delta Phieta. She is secretary of the Cranbrook Village association and enjoys work in photography and woodworking as a hobby.

Mrs. Fisher belongs to the Junior League in Birmingham. The Ford Tractor Division in Birmingham is Mr. Fisher's place of business in salary personnel.

MORE OAK Parkers are Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Jolla 29305 Westbrook parkway. Arriving in Cranbrook in June with their two daughters, Roberta, 12 in the seventh grade class at McKinley and Kathleen, seven, enrolled at Lathrup school in first grade.

Jolla is newly elected president of Cranbrook Village association. His spare time accomplishments include making a hi-fi set for the family's enjoyment. He is supervisor with Ford Tractor division. Mrs. Jolla enjoys sewing and refinishing furniture.

Lathrup Girls On Troop Camp

Troop No. 158 of the Lathrup Girl Scouts spent Saturday and Sunday, April 7 and 8, on a troop camp at Camp Natin. Eighteen 11-year-old girls made the trip with leaders Mrs. Curt Teronoff and Mrs. Gene Peron. They were assisted by Mrs. Oliver Hawkins, Mrs. Ed Martin and Mrs. Ed Munro. Mrs. Edmund Vialle was licensed camp leader.

For many of the girls it was their first experience on a camp out but they went on hikes, worked on their badges and had cookouts. By the end of their camping each girl had qualified for the campcraft, the outdoor safety, the adventurer and the hospitality badges.

Scouts on the week-end troop camp were Sandy Brann, Edwina Golds, Nancy Hawkins, Penna Isaacson, Linda Martin, Sandy Martin, Pat McCormick, Carol Munro, Jill Peron, Janice Ross, Carol Russell, Dianne Simpson, Sharyn Sloan, Joan Stanley, Carol Vialle, Kay Walker, Peggy Vauch and Connie Gardulski.

Newcomers

MEADOW LAKE FARMS—Welcome to Mr. and Mrs. Judson St. John who have just moved into their new home on Wye Oak road in Meadow Lake Farm. They formerly lived in Grosse Pointe Park. St. John is associated with the Ayerst Laboratories, and enjoys golfing in his spare time.

Have You Met . . .

The new residents on Derby road? Mr. and Mrs. W. I. Taylor and one-year-old son. They moved here from Chicago, Ill. Taylor, a graduate of Indiana university, is a senior writer for Fluor, Inc. His wife is also an Indiana university graduate. Their hobbies are bridge and little theater work.

WATCH FOR turning CARS

LATHRUP—Thirty per cent, or 1,250 trees have been sprayed in the city's battle against Dutch elm disease. City Administrator Leonard A. Walski told Council Monday night.

Mrs. Henry Mika New Club President

The Women's National Farm and Garden Club of East Beverly held their annual election of officers at their monthly meeting. Mrs. Henry S. Mika was elected president. Mrs. Arnold Young, vice president; Mrs. G. H. Hezmar, recording secretary; Mrs. David H. Raup, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Russell Riley, treasurer, all of whom will take office in June.

Easter Baskets

As the project of the month, Den 5, Pack Boy Club Scouts, under the leadership of Mrs. Norman Almond and Mrs. Raymond Simanek have been making Easter baskets for the pediatric ward of William Beaumont hospital. Ted Mead, Roy Almond, Rick Campbell, Eddie Muir, David Johnson and Jay Simanek are the boys doing this work.

Have You Met . . .

Dr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller, who have moved from Roseville to 17988 Buckingham. Dr. Miller is connected with William Beaumont Hospital and belongs to a number of medical organizations. They have three children: Arthur six, Douglas four and Norman three. Their hobby is boating and they spend most of their leisure hours during the summer on their cruiser.

New Daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Carl I. Betley of Beverly, announced the birth of a daughter, Joan Elisabeth, born April 5, at Florence Crittenton hospital, weighing in at 7 lbs. 12 oz. David six, Cynthia five, and Daniel three were delighted to hear of the number of boys and girls.

Entertains Garden Club

FOXCOFF—On Friday Mrs. Frank J. Swindell of Orchard way entertained members of the North West Garden Club at luncheon. Members held their annual business meeting which was conducted by Mrs. H. John Lowry, president. A new slate for the coming year was presented to the members and accepted.

Officers for the coming year are Mrs. Carman Adams, president; Mrs. Ed Swinger, secretary; Mrs. N. W. Berry, second vice-president; Mrs. A. G. Helgeson, secretary; and Mrs. F. Leech, treasurer.

Following the business meeting, Mrs. George Madill gave a talk on "Birt Gardening" or "Fun with a Green Thumb." She presented a variety of individually potted plants that had been propagated by her own practical methods.

The plants were sold to the various members, the proceeds to be placed in the "Fennos for Friendship" fund.

Oren Downs Heads East S'Field PTA

EAST SOUTHFIELD—East Southfield PTA held election of officers at the regular monthly meeting. Elected to a second term of office were Oren Downs, president and Mrs. Robert Pettit for vice-president. Mrs. Homer Harris, secretary and Mrs. Fredrick Henderson, roommother chairman, is in charge of the installation dinner that night.

Organize K of C For S'Field-Fton

The newly-formed St. Francis Council, Knights of Columbus, serving the Southfield-Farmington area, has been granted Charter No. 4400 by the Supreme Office of the order.

Election of officers will take place at a meeting to be held April 25, and the Council will be formally instituted May 26, in the clubhouse of George F. Monaghan Council No. 2690.

Application for Charter membership may be made at meetings scheduled for April 25, May 2 and 16, in St. Michael parish hall, Ten Mile and Cole roads.

East Southfield MOMS Unit Meets

EAST SOUTHFIELD—MOMS unit 63 of Southfield held a pot-luck luncheon on April 16 at the home of Mrs. Thomas McGee, 2455 Sutherland. Members worked on sewing projects.

Taking cakes and pies to the library in Detroit on April 27 will be Mrs. Gordon Stevenson, Mrs. Wilbur Wort, Mrs. George F. Grigg and Mrs. Thomas McGee. Mrs. Edward Phillips is MOMS newest member.

Spray 1,250 Trees

LATHRUP—Thirty per cent, or 1,250 trees have been sprayed in the city's battle against Dutch elm disease. City Administrator Leonard A. Walski told Council Monday night.

Mayor's Exchange

LATHRUP—Councilwoman Elizabeth Mitchell has been placed in charge of a Mayor's Exchange program that will bring Riverdale's mayor to Lathrup and take Mayor Lantz L. Mackey to that downriver community May 20.

AILEEN STOCKER
MIDWEST 4-1038

Beverly Social Briefs

Mr. and Mrs. Monro Mann of Birwood returned from spending five weeks at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. They report excellent weather and good deep sea fishing. Dolphin was their catch—also enjoyed swimming and golf.

They stopped at Cypress Gardens on their way to visit friends in St. Petersburg. On the return trip home they were kept busy in a state of suspense receiving tornado warnings through the state of Georgia.

The home of Mrs. Martin Samanen on Birwood was the scene of a coffee for neighbors in the block honoring Mrs. Robert Collier who moved to Eastlady.

Attending were Mrs. George Gates, Mrs. D. Borgeson, Mrs. William Martin, Mrs. Naomi Johnson, Mrs. John Cleary, Mrs. George Peters, Mrs. Norman Almond, Mrs. Raymond Simanek, Mrs. Oscar Anderson, Mrs. J. R. Montgomery, Mrs. Harry Mudge and Mrs. Emery Jones.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Perry Wick of Evanston, Ill. are house guests of the Paul Stockers on Buckingham for the Easter holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Ende of Mayfair Lane were host and hostess at a dinner party in their home in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Berringer, also of Mayfair Lane, who are leaving the neighborhood. The guests, oldtimers in the neighborhood, were Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Lillie, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ross, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hutchinson and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Walk.

The "Robbie" Collier, formerly of Birwood who moved to their home on Eastlady, and David T. Collier is financial analyst at the Mercury Division of Ford Motor. Mrs. Collier enjoys gardening and sewing.

The Chalmers Zimmermans visited their daughter and her husband in the Donald Ballards. They took up their stay in Florida with their good friends, the Will-

4-E THE BIRMINGHAM ECCENTRIC April 18, 1957

W. Beverly Garden Club Meets Apr. 25

Monthly meeting of the Women's Reasener and Mrs. James Shank National Farm and Garden Club Speaker will be Mrs. Joseph Johnson of West Beverly will be held April 25 at the home of Mrs. Walter Zimmerman, Sylvan Lane. The organization, who will speak on "Flowers Mentioned in the Bible." Co-hostesses will be Mrs. Harold Bible.

Have You Met . . .

The John N. Easterbrooks, formerly of Birmingham, who have moved to their new home on Arlington in East Beverly? Mr. Easterbrook is an electrical engineer with Westinghouse. They have four children, Jane nine Jack six Dick five and Don two.

Busy Brownies

Brownie Troop No. 821 under the leadership of Mrs. D. Borgeson have been busy making baby blankets for the Needwork Guild. They also fashioned Easter table decorations for their own mothers.

Bargains galore in Want Ads.

IN THE BLOOMFIELD HILLS SCHOOL DISTRICT:

Beautiful BROOKFIELD HIGHLANDS

3 BEDROOM COLONIAL RANCH HOMES

Models from $33,900 Excellent Mortgages

See this brand new colonial ranch home in hilly Brookfield Highlands, featuring two full ceramic tile baths PLUS a separate powder room, 33-foot country kitchen with built-in frigidaire oven, range and brick charcoal steak grill. Loads of closets and kitchen cupboard space. Three spacious bedrooms.

No through traffic with the separate dining room and spacious living room. Two and a half car garage. Beautiful hills with a view for miles around. Landscaped, good blacktop roads and community water systems.

HOUSEMAN-SPITZLEY CORPORATION

BLOOMFIELD HILLS OFFICE
Long Lake Road at Telegraph
Opposite Devon Gables
Phone MI. 4-7422

MANY EXCEPTIONAL HOMES NOW UNDER CONSTRUCTION IN THIS DEVELOPMENT!

LOOK NO FURTHER FOR THE BEST BUYS

Address value is always important when you invest in a home. Here is a sound example of protection for your housing dollars. All environmental influences in the Quanton Brook district are tops. Maintenance of this stately brick and stone Colonial has been superb.

Impressive center entrance of slate.

4 bedrooms. 2½ baths.

22' screened porch. Tiled and painted recreation room.

Large library. Fitted carpeting.

Breakfast nook adjoins the splendid kitchen.

Set on a wide expanse of landscaped lawn, this is delightful to see. $49,500.

The walls of glass in this Contemporary on a knoll command a panoramic view over the valley. There is more than an acre of land in this site. It's country living—close in.

Open ceiling living room with a magnificent natural fireplace.

Contemporary kitchen has all "1957" built-in equipment. An "open" activity room on the lower level, with a fireplace and built-in grille, has separate entrance to the grounds through glass doors.

4 bedrooms and 3 beautiful baths.

Practical planning has provided room for a fifth bedroom if desired.

The entire house has been carefully constructed, and includes custom appointments. It is now ready for your occupancy. $52,500.

This home proves that you can live in a handsome Colonial and still keep within a limited budget. The owner has been transferred, so the price is set at just $23,500 for a quick sale.

First floor lavatory. 15' screened porch.

3 bedrooms. Recreation room features paneling.

Fireplace in the living room that has the special charm of a bay.

Schools, shops nearby, and many playmates in the neighborhood for your children makes this the perfect "find".

Nestled on a private lane overlooking a picturesque valley. Yet this architect-designed ranch has city water and sewer, and is walking distance to downtown Birmingham shops and transportation.

Studio-type living room with a fireplace.

Dining el opens on to a screened porch overlooking the valley.

Attached garage. 2 bedrooms.

If you would like the combination of a small home with minimum of maintenance in a private location, in town—true individuality at only $23,900—we urge you to call us—today!

Out of New England, nestled beneath the boughs on an extra-large site that has been landscaped with loving care . . . right here in town.

Really large living room, paneled library, separate dining room, powder room, 22' screened porch, roomy bedrooms, and generous closets, full basement, attached garage.

This four-year-old Cape Cod is complete with carpets and such features as mercury switches, attic fan, and incinerator. Because the owner is moving out of state, we offer this "show place" at just $30,000.

Landscaping so perfectly designed with such fine plantings that you will thoroughly enjoy gardening this summer. The large yard is fenced.

Special amount of storage space! 3 bedrooms.

Large living room with a fireplace.

2 baths. Attached garage. Full basement.

25' recreation room. Screened porch.

Copper plumbing, aluminum storms and screens, disposal. You'll have real pride of ownership in this "spic and span" ranch. $24,500.

Watt, Manuel & Snyder, Inc.

298 South Woodward
Midwest 4-6300

Realtors

Birmingham, Michigan
Jordan 6-2323