Gilbert Lake Social Briefs

GILBERT LAKE — Cub scouts of den 3 enjoyed a cook-out last week at the home of their den mother, Mrs. Robert Peaslee. They picked one of those perfect sunny days and toiled food down to the shore of Gilbert Lake where they built a fire.

There they concocted a savory hamburger stew and tossed a green salad, then proceeded to enjoy their own cooking. Dessert was a little too much for them so they polished it all off with apples and cookies.

Pat Flaherty, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Flaherty of Pon Valley flew to Bermuda yesterday where she will vacation for a week with a group of 16 college classmates. Pat is a student at Manhattan College, N. Y.

Pat's sister, Katherine, is at home for a 10-day vacation from Duesene college in New York where she is in her freshman year.

Dr. L. B. Nickerson and his daughter Sally, 15, of Golfview drive are in Washington, D. C. vacationing for a week. It is Sally's first trip to the capital city so they are to spend most of their time sightseeing. Mrs. Nickerson, at home with their young son, is hoping Sally will find the cherry blossoms still in their full beauty.

Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Campbell of Golfview drive are home after vacationing for the past two weeks at the Seashore hotel in Fort Lauderdale. They expect to entertain members of their family at dinner on Easter Sunday.

Bob Eoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Eoff, Jr. of M. Millers was placed the coronet with the band in the Spring Music Festival at the Bloomfield Hills high school last weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Eff entertained dinner guests on Saturday evening at the Seashore hotel in Fort Lauderdale. They were Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Cobb and daughter, Linda of Ypsilanti.

The Eoffs will be in South Lyon this weekend for a reunion at the family farm with some 30 members of Mr. Eoff's family.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Mayes of Lone Lake Rd. have returned home after vacationing for three weeks at Bel Aire, Florida. They stayed at the Bellevue-Biltmore in Bel Aire then went on to Naples and the Beach club on the Gulf. Swimming and fishing highlights their days and Mayes was well satisfied with his catch one day of five kingfish and a group.

Mr. and Mrs. George Chesley have returned to their home on Gilbert Lake Rd. after vacationing in Scottsdale, Arizona for a month. They stayed at the Yellow Boat ranch.

Sightseeing, shopping and fishing were fun for Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCracken of Shidow Lane when they vacationed in Hollywood, Florida for six weeks. Fishing was especially good one day when Mr. Cracken and three friends went deep-sea fishing and returned with a catch of 150 blue and mackerel.

See Plantations on Virginia Vacation

FOXCOFT — Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Patterson and young Jimmy of E. Surrey have returned after vacationing in Virginia and Maryland for the past ten days. They traveled the Skyline drive through the Blue Ridge mountains and visited the caverns in Virginia.

In Charlottesville they stopped to see the University of Virginia and Monticello. They were enchanted with Williamsburg where they visited many old plantations. Highlight of the trip was the Jamestown festival commemorating the 35th anniversary of the first permanent settlement in the U. S.

There they saw the replicas of the three ships which brought the earliest settlers to America. Before returning home the Pattersons stopped in Maryland to visit Mr. Patterson's family.

Troop B-6 Camps Out at Brighton

WING LAKE — Boy scout troop B-6, sponsored by the Wing Lake Parent Teachers organization spent the week-end at a campout at Charles Hollow Boy Scout camp in the scout area near Brighton, Mich.

There were 20 boys and five fathers, together with scout master Ray Davies and assistant scout master James Allen in the group. Arriving at 6:30 p. m. Friday, the boys prepared the evening meal and then saw movies before retiring. They were up bright and early Saturday morning to prepare a breakfast of pancakes and sausage before departing on a five-mile nature hike. A memorable event of the day were games in the woods in a blinding blizzard.

Other couples in the party were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Siebert of Wing Lake Farms, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Platt and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Knox, both of Detroit.

Champagne, dinner and dancing was the evening's entertainment.

Dr. and Mrs. Richard Thompson of Sodon Lake road have returned from three weeks in Clearwater, Florida. During the last ten days they were joined by their children. Mrs. Thompson announces the next meeting of the Detroit Orce-

Novembers on Lantern Lane are Mr. and Mrs. Jess Gail who have made their home for the past year and a half in Coral Ridge near Ft. Lauderdale, Fla. The Gails are former long-time Michigan residents. They have two married daughters living near-by in Dearborn and Flint. Mr. Gail is retired.

Tuckets Go Island-Hopping, Favor Antigua

CHALMERS LAKE — An extensive island-hopping trip was begun December 29 by Mr. and Mrs. James I. Tucket of Wing Lake road. The entire trip was made Pan American and Dutch airlines.

The first two weeks were spent on both the east and west coasts of Florida before taking off for their first island stop at Cuba where they spent two days. Then on to Jamaica where they visited friends and relatives for a week. Their next stop was Curacao in the Dutch West Indies where they remained for eight days. Five days in Trinidad was next then to Tobago, north of Trinidad. This is the island which was the setting for the book, Robinson Crusoe.

On the island of Barbados they spent three weeks and then took off for Martinique where they visited four days. From there they went to Antigua where they spent eight days.

Their last stop was Puerto Rico before returning to Miami where they picked up their car and drove home.

Their choice of the islands was Tobago and Antigua which, they say are still quite unspoiled by mobs of tourists and both present a profuse display of coconut palms. They were home for two weeks when they took off a week in Toronto, Canada where they visited relatives.
