

Wherever one may go on this earth will be found human beings, each desiring of finding personal physical security, plus inner happiness. It is, of course, much easier to satisfy physical needs than it is to obtain sufficient food for the "inner man". Human society needs to develop greater "spiritual appetites."

EASTER

Easter is the time of renewal and resurrection. Nature is beginning to drop her winter's cape and don a new garb of verdant green. The long sleep is over; new life is to burst soon into bloom. Easter is upon us!

Easter is an appropriate time to take note, for the Resurrection was a new approach to bringing God to men, men to God — nothing like it has ever occurred before, nor has it since. In raising Christ from the dead, God was bringing a new kind of life to men. Each of us on Easter, in our own way, and in the church of our own choice, testify to our faith in God.
