Altrusa Club Initiates New Members

Celebrating the 40th anniversary of the founding of Altrusa International, the world's oldest service club for women, branch clubs everywhere planned special events this month.

Monday evening, the local club combined a dinner and initiation of new members, at the Community House, as its part in the celebration. Decorations for the event were in the club colors, with navy blue ribbons draped over white covered tables centered with bouquets of white flowers. Climax of the dinner meeting was the lighting of forty candles on a large birthday cake.

TAKEN into membership were Margaret Halliday, assistant to the manager of Birmingham country club; Mrs. Russell Barnes, librarian of Cranbrook Academy of Art; June Keil, chief physical therapist of the Sister Elizabeth Kenney Polio Clinic at Farmington; Marion Fiske, assistant director of the social service department of Pontiac state hospital, and Mrs. Alex Gow, co-owner of a local gift shop.

Members planning to attend the May 4 workshop in Lima, Ohio, for training in duties and responsibilities of club officers and committee chairmen, include Mrs. Carl Wunnenberger, Mrs. Warren Small, Marcel Brasie, Mary White,

Tea Planned To Raise Funds For Memorial

In an effort to raise funds for the American Overseas Association memorial shrine, honoring Red Cross heroes dead, a local group of former Red Cross personnel, organized as the Birmingham chapter of the American Overseas Association, is planning a tea May 1. Speaker will be Mrs. Norris Host, who has been participating in the group's main project, that of entertaining foreign visitors.

Mrs. Millard Newcomb and Mary Helen Holmes.

who come to this area as part of the International Cooperation Administration program. For over five years, Mrs. William J. Sampson has been chairman of the program committee, working with the State department in providing "home hospitality." She contacts AOA members, who then welcome these visitors into their homes, giving them a picture of the American way of life.

Hostess for the event will be Mrs. Ben Mills of Pine road, Bloomfield township.
